The first election was held at the house of Richard Andrews in 1836. Richard Andrews and Samuel Dunlap were elected Justices of the Peace. In 1849, Levi Moore donated a lot from his farm upon which to erect a church—stipulating that it should be a union church, and open to all denominations; that it should be finished, fenced in, and kept in repair; and unless these provisions were complied with, the lot would revert to the owner of the farm. After a few years, the property passed into the hands of Mr. Scott, its present proprietor. The building was never finished, and the agreement was violated by this fact; but meetings were held at intervals by the various denominations, and Mr. Scott refused to reclaim the ground. During the war of the rebellion, some of the ministers insisted upon delivering political sermons, and enunciating their own principles from the pulpit. The congregations were divided as to their sympathies with the contending armies, withdrew, and refused their support to the church. It grew weaker, and was finally abandoned, and is now in a neglected and unsafe condition.

CONCLUSION

From a record of past events we pass to a contemplation of the present. Aboit has taken her place as as one of the foremost townships of the county; the forests of earlier years have disappeared, and rich farms are cultivated on lands formerly covered with thickets, which would have discouraged any but the men who first began the work of improvement within its limits. What they left unfinished at their death their descendants have nobly carried out, and the characteristics of their fathers fell to them as a part of their inheritance. Energy and industry are not less marked in the sons than in the fathers, though under different circumstances. They have not the same obstacles to contend with, and their labor meets with a more speedy recompense.

While excelling as an agricultural district, Aboit has acquired some distinction as a live-stock market, and much care has been bestowed by some of its citizens upon the propagation of a fine breed of cattle, hogs and sheep. Among the citizens engaged in this enterprise are Messrs. Growcock, W. J. Esterline, J. N. Corey, D. Russean, W. A. Hamilton, W. A. Kelsey, D. Swineheart, A. H. Bates and I. N. Corey, all of whom exhibited fine specimens of stock at the last agricultural fair.

DAVID SWINEHEART.

Daniel and Margaret (Keen) Swineheart, both natives of Center Co., Penn., were early settlers of Stark County, Ohio, and there their son David (the subject of this sketch) was born in the year 1823. Attaining the age of twenty-five, he came to Allen County, where, two years later (1850), in Aboit Township, he married Miss Catherine Ann Crouse, daughter of Barney Crouse of Somerset County, Penn. They are the parents of eight children, in order of age as follows—Henry, born in 1851, married Miss Lizzie Robertson, and resides in Whitley County, this State; Melissa Jane, born in 1854, married Thomas Kline, and they, too, reside in Whitley County; James B., born in 1856, married Miss Mary Cephle, and lives in the "old house" at home; Christene R., born in 1858; Armadilla Seville (deceased), born in 1860; La Fayette, born in 1862; Sherman, born in 1865; and David Allen, born in 1868, all of whom reside at home except those living in Whitley County and the one deceased.

In religion, Mr. Swineheart inclines to the Lutheran faith. In politics, a Democrat. Though not a seeker of public trusts, he has been called to fill—with credit to himself—some of the offices of his township. Toward public enterprises beneficial to his community, he has tendered a liberal hand. Yet, withal, he has looked well to his own prosperity and success. Always frank, and always hospitable to friend and stranger, a kind husband and father, he and his worthy lady enjoy the respect and esteem of all who know them.

CEDAR CREEK TOWNSHIP.

BY L. H. NEWTON.

LOCATION AND BOUNDARY.

Cedar Creek is situated in the northern part of Allen County, and is bounded as follows North by De Kalb County, east by Springfield Township, south by Milan and St. Joseph Townships, west by Perry Township.

STREAMS AND WATER-COURSES.

St. Joseph River traverses the township from northeast to southwest. Cedar Creek flows through the western portion, joining St. Joseph River at a point near the village of Cedarville. There are also four small streams, or branches, flowing in a direction parallel with the course of Cedar Creek, and finding an outlet in the St. Joseph.

The general character of the surface is undulating, terminating in bluff banks along the margins of the principal streams.

The soil is of clay, intermixed with sand, and produces, in great abundance, all the fruits and cereals indigenous to this climate.

Until 1837, Cedar Creek formed a part of the territory included in the comprehensive boundaries of St. Joseph Township, as established by the first Board of Commissioners of Allen County, but in September of that year it was ordered by the Board that Township 32 north, of Range 13 east, be an organized township, to be known as Cedar Creek. It was thus made to comprise a Congressional Township, with an area of 35.58 square miles, 23,026.61 acres.

EARLY SETTLERS.

Prior to the date of its cession to the white man, the territory of this township had been penetrated by French missionaries, who came to administer to the spiritual needs of its savage possessors. They left nothing from which can be gathered their names, or any authentic account of their labors.

After the territory came into possession of the white man, traces of their existence were discovered in various portions of the township. On one occasion William Müller, soon after his arrival, was walking through the woods near his cabin, and saw some carved figures in the bark of a beech-tree, which upon closer examination, proved to be a French inscription, with the date 1772, followed by a cross. The inscription bore evidence of being of no recent date, but whether as old as it purported to be will of course ever be shrouded in doubt. The fact of this having been a missionary station was established by events which occurred in later years, and which will be recorded in another part of this chapter.

After it was vacated by the Indians, the soil of this township remained untenanted until 1833; then a Mr. Wood, in quest of a Western home, located on the bank of Cedar Creek, where he erected a cabin and passed the winter. This one season seemed to satisfy his desire for association with a new country, and in the following spring he decided to embrace the first opportunity of returning to New York, his native State. This opportunity presented itself in the succeeding spring.

Jacob Notestine, with his family, came to the township in a flat-boat, and while their goods were being disembarked, it came to the ears of Mr. Wood that a boat was at the landing. He interviewed the proprietor, who, on the following day, pushed his boat up to Wood's cabin, on Cedar Creek, and the dishea[illegible]d adventurer embarked with his household goods for a more convenient locality.

Jacob Notestine was a man who came with a full realization of what he would have to encounter in the woods, and as the hardships of pioneer life fell upon him, he met them with a determined courage, knowing that time and industry would in a measure, smooth his thorny pathway On the 15th day of July, 1830, he settled in Fort Wayne, having left Fairfield County Ohio, about two weeks previously. He had a family of thirteen children, of whom six are now living. Peter and Daniel are substantial farmers in this township; Aaron and Isaiah reside in Kansas.

Mr Notestine remained nineteen years in the township during which time he proved himself equal to the task of making life profitable in the wilderness. He cleared a fine farm, upon which he lived until the close of his life in December, 1853.

John Manning, from Mercer County, Ohio, settled in the township in the spring of 1834, a few days subsequent to the arrival of Jacob Notestine. He selected a tract of land on Section 15 which he cleared and improved, and upon which he resided during life. This farm is now owned by Benjamin Schlatter. His sons, William and Amos Manning, now reside in Eel River Township. He was a man of industrious habits and great energy, and was universally esteemed throughout the settlement

William Müller came from Ohio and settled on his present farm in 1836. He was then a young man and full of life and energy, so indispensable to one in his position. From Beckett's Branch to the spot which he had chosen for his home, he was compelled to cut his way through the woods After felling some trees and erecting a cabin, he went to Cincinnati, Ohio, and there was married to the lady who, ever since, has been his companion and helpmeet. He has cleared and improved a fine farm, upon which he still resides

Louis Nettlehurst settled in the township soon after William Müller, and cleared a farm on Section 18, where he died within a few years after his arrival.

Peter Sullivan and John Rogers came in the same year (1836). Both are natives of Ireland, and have always been firm friends. They lived near each other in Pennsylvania and emigrated to Indiana in company. Both have cleared the land they then purchased and converted it into fine farms. They still reside in the township, respected by all who know them.

John Baker and William Berry came in 1836. Baker was a nat[illegible] Mercer County, Ohio, and settled with his family on a tract of heavily timbered land, from which he developed a good farm. About ten years later, he sold his farm and removed to St Joseph, Mo. His companion, Mr. Berry, was also a native of Mercer County, Ohio. He located on the farm now owned by the heirs of Christian Schlatter, and remained engaged in its cultivation until his removal to the West.

Moses Sivotts, an early settler of St. Joseph Township, settled in Cedar Creek in 1838. He remained here until death, and was buried on his own farm which is now owned by Mrs Sebastian Schlatter

William and Joseph Shields, John Hackley, Aaron Paff, William Bowser, John Hagan, Henry Updyke, Abraham Fulkerson, Harmon Lydecker, Joseph Silvers, John B. Blue and —— Jones were among the early settlers of the township, arriving between the years 1837 and 1840.

EARLY EVENTS.

Jacob Notestine and John Manning planted the first corn in 1834, and [illegible] the first wheat, in the following fall.

Jacob Notestine set out the first orchard in 1836. He bought the trees from John Chapman (alias Johnny Appleseeds), a character well known by the older residents of the county. This orchard is still thrifty and bears fruit annually.

The first road was surveyed through the township in 1835, being a continuation of the road surveyed in the preceding year as far as Jacob Notestine's farm. In this year, it was made a State road, and called the Fort Wayne and St. Joseph road.

Mary, daughter of Peter Notestine, was the first white child born in the township. She was born in the fall of 1834, and died later in the same year.

The first marriage was celebrated in 1840, between Nelson Grubb and Miss Martha A. Notestine, at the residence of the bride's parents. In the same year, William Manning and Miss Eliza Murray, and Amos Manning and Miss Rouch, were united in the holy bonds.

The first store was kept by Thomas Hamilton in 1838–39 near the present site of Maxfield & Co.'s flouring-mill at Hamilton. E. L. Knight opened a store about the same time in the half-completed mill building at that village. This mill was built by William G. Ewing, and was the first in the township.

Stout Price was the first blacksmith. He came to the township in 1840, and erected his forge in a little log cabin, near the site of Hamilton. After that village was platted, he removed to the place now occupied by a shop of the same character, belonging to John Schoerpf. Samuel Cassady was associated with Price as partner, and subsequently opened a shop in the building vacated by the latter.

John Dever was the first wagon-maker in the township. He opened his shop in 1839 or 1840, and conducted his trade successfully for a number of years. He is now one of the proprietors of the Leo Flouring-Mills.

The first schoolhouse was built near the center of the township in 1837. It was situated near the swamp, and was quite inaccessible, as there were no roads leading to it, and few children within the vicinity. It was never used for the purpose, and was left to decay. The public-school system was inaugurated in 1857, and within a few years, each district was supplied with a school building. Of this class there are now ten in the township, having 593 scholars enrolled.

The first election was held in the school-house in 1837. The voting-pre[illegible] was so remote from the inhabited part of the township, that not more than half of the voters found their way to it. It was then ordered that the election be held thereafter at the house of John Manning. At the election which took place at the log schoolhouse, Joseph Silvers and John B. Blue were elected Justices of the Peace, and Thomas Wilson, Constable.

The first post office in the township was established in 1847, two years previous to the platting of the village of Hamilton. It was known as Leo Post-Office, and John Manning was appointed Postmaster. The office was kept at the store of John B. Blue, who acted as Deputy. The mail was carried from Fort Wayne to the northwestern towns in Ohio, and the southern towns in Michigan; and Leo was a point on the route. Jeremiah Bowen was the contractor, and his sons, Mason and Marvin, rode the horses used for the mail service.

The first religious meeting was held at the house of Jacob Notestine, in 1836, by Rev. Hickland, of the Methodist Protestant Church. In 1838, a class was organized under the auspices of this denomination, and received accessions from the Methodist Episcopal and United Brethren Churches. They held meetings at irregular intervals, in private houses, and at a later date, in the schoolhouse on Section 32; maintaining an organization until the members of the Methodist and United Brethren Churches withdrew to organize their respective denominations.

CHURCHES.

Methodist Episcopal.—The members of this denomination organized a class in 1845, under the ministerial offices of Rev. Dowd, and held meetings at Silver's Schoolhouse until 1851. In that year, they erected a log church on the farm of Wesley Hollopeter, and maintained services for several years. Finally, some of its members withdrew and organized churches nearer their homes. Mount Olivet Church and Robinson Chapel are its successors. Its membership was weakened by their withdrawal, and it soon ceased to be used as a church. In 1851, the Methodists organized at Hamilton, and held meeting at the house of Henry McEwen. Rev. Andrew Hollopeter was in charge of the circuit to which it was attached, and officiated as Pastor—holding meetings once a month. In 1857, they erected a small frame church at Hamilton, in which they worshiped until 1878. The building was then sold, and the congregation purchased one of larger dimensions, which they repaired, and in which they now worship. They have a membership of forty, and the Church is under the pastoral care of Rev. Wolverton.

In 1869, the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, living at Cedarville, erected at that point a neat frame church, which is also under the pastoral care of Rev. Wolverton at present.

Catholic.—St. Bonifacius' Church was organized in 1850, by Rev. Father Benoit, and Rev. Father Bacones, with forty families. Services were held at private houses until 1856, at which time they erected their present church building in the village of Hamilton. Services are now held every alternate Sunday, by Rev. Father M. P. Fallize.

United Brethren.—In February, 1861, a class of this denomination was organized at Hamilton, with fifty constituent members. Rev. Jonathan Thomas was their Pastor. Soon after the organization, they erected a church at Hamilton, in which they held services until 1875. The building was a frame, 36x48 feet, and cost $1,200. In 1875, it was sold to the Methodist Episcopal denomination, and, in the same year, a new edifice was erected at Cedarville, 30x40 feet. It was dedicated by Elder David Holmes in April, 1877. The following named ministers have officiated as Pastors of the Church: Revs. William Moffett, J. Lower, G. W. Stewart, G. W. Tuttle, Jonathan Thomas, J. K. Alwood, E. Miller, M. Mothlen, J. W. Martin, D. B. Keller, G. W. Dinius, G. W. Redman. The present number of members is fifty; Rev. J. W. Martin, present Pastor.

The Sunday school was organized soon after the Church, and, while the congregation remained at Hamilton, it was only conducted during the summer. Since its removal to Cedarville, however, it has been maintained throughout the year. It has seventy scholars enrolled, and, during the past year, had an average attendance of forty-nine. John Stevick is the present Superintendent.

German Baptist.—Until 1876, the members of this denomination residing in Cedar Creek Township went to the southern part of De Kalb County to attend religious services. In June of that year, they withdrew from the Church there, and purchased the building formerly used as a house of worship by the Methodists at Hamilton, converting it into a church of their own denomination. It was dedicated by Rev. Jesse Calberd, of Kosciusko County, Ind. Rev. Harrison Ellson is the present Pastor, and the Church now has fifty members.

Mennonite.—The first services by this denomination were held in 1852, at the house of Jacob Saunders, by Rev. Craber; and at this meeting the society was organized. Meetings were held regularly thereafter at the houses and barns of members of the congregation, until 1874. In the summer of that year, they erected a frame church, about a mile east of Hamilton, which now has a membership of 100.

In 1860, several members withdrewfrom the Church, and organized a second church of the same denomination though independent of the old society.

A difference in views caused the separation, and the disaffected element have never erected a church, but still hold their meetings at private houses.

Apostolic Christian Church.—In the fall of 1862, two members of this denomination met at the house of Jacob Schwartz, and organized the Church. Rev. John Craybill, of Illinois, preached the first sermon. These two constituted the membership of the Church for nearly two years; then others were added to the number, and meetings were held at the houses of the various members. In 1878, they erected a church near the town of Hamilton, and on the first Sunday in May it was dedicated by Rev. Henry Sauders and Rev. Joseph Conrad, who still serve as Pastors of the Church. Since that time, services have been conducted every Sunday. The present number of members is thirty.

RELICS.

A few years ago, the residents of Cedarville were thrown into a state of great excitement by the reports of a party of strangers who came from the West, ostensibly to hunt and trap along Cedar Creek. As the stream is not famous for its fish, or the game in its vicinity, a suspicion was awakened in the minds of the citizens that their mission was of another nature. They were watched, and were often found making excavations near a particular spot on the bank of the creek. Finally, it was rumored that these men had come from the West to seek for treasure, buried by the French and Indians in that spot, guided by the directions given them by an old Indian whose ancestors were among the tribes who lived here in those far-away days. When interrogated as to the truth of this report, they did not deny it, but continued digging from day to day. It is said that they finally exhumed a chest, rotten and worm eaten; but its contents were never made known. Why treasure was buried here, or whether it was ever buried or not, will remain questions for the curious. At any rate, the legends of the locality should not be lightly thrown aside, they are its legacies; and, whether fanciful or true, are possessed of a degree of romantic interest, from their very uncertainty.

Indisputable traces of a former civilization have been discovered in the vicinity of Cedarville, at various times, according to the statement of John Pring, a resident of the township, and a reliable man. Mr. Pring settled in the township in 1848, and soon after his arrival found, on the bank of the creek near Cedarville, some fragments of trace-chains, log-chains, etc., together with a heap of cinders, which confirmed his idea that a blacksmith's forge had been operated there or in the vicinity. As they were buried below the surface, he concluded they must have been there for years. On the morning of April 28, 1850, Mr. Pring, in company with a neighbor, George Hursch, started to Leo Mills to buy flour. A storm had prevailed during the night of the 27th, and had uprooted a linn tree, which fell across the road. The friends separated as they neared the tree, and Mr. Pring's eyes fell upon what he regarded as a strange sight—a sword, buried nearly to the hilt in the soft wood. He drew it out and took it home, where he kept it for several years. He afterward presented it to Mr. F. P. Randall, of Fort Wayne. Near the same date William Müller found on his farm a cannon-ball. These facts would seem to indicate the presence of soldiers at some time; but it is not known that any battles were fought here.

On a later occasion (October, 1869), while in company with his son, walking in the vicinity of Cedarville, Mr. Pring noticed a depression in the ground, and thrust a stick into the soft earth, which yielded readily, striking a hard substance about two feet below the surface. He procured a spade, determined to satisfy his curiosity, and finally unearthed an beechen cross, fourteen feet in length, and bearing on its face the figures, "1772," deeply carved. During the construction of a ditch on the farm of Peter Notestine, in April, 1879, the laborers exhumed a number of gigantic bones, together with several large teeth, probably the remains of some pre-historic animal. The teeth are three inches wide at the base, and the jawbone looks very much like that of the mastodon. These relics are now in the possession of Mr. Notestine.

HAMILTON—LEO POST OFFICE.

The village of Hamilton was laid out in February, 1849, and soon took precedence of its older neighbor, Cedarville. It is now quite a prosperous village. The following are its principal business men: General merchandise, John Schoerpf, A. C. Stewart; drugs, E. G. Wheelock, Casebeer & Co.; boot and shoe manufacturer, A. Lower; physicians, Dr. E. G. Wheelock, Dr. J. J. Cottie; Justice of the Peace, C. W. Lindsey; steam saw-mill, Stevick & Hollopeter; planing-mill, Frank Muller; steam flouring-mill, Maxfield & Co.; blacksmith and wagon-maker, Jacob Fink; blacksmiths, Fred Deventer, Casper Harber; wagon-makers, J. L. Lepper, John Kazmier.

SOCIETIES.

Leo Lodge, No. 224, A., F. & A. M., was organized under dispensation, January 10, 1859, and received its charter May 24 of the same year. Edward L. Knight was appointed W. M.; Jacob Bickhart, S. W.; C. H. Viberg, J. W.; William Daily, Secretary; J. W. Hollopeter, Treasurer. The Lodge is now in good working order, and owns the building in which its meetings are held. It is free from debt, and in good condition financially. Its membership at present numbers thirty-nine. The present officers are as follows: E. C. Godfrey, W. M.; W. C. Hollopeter, S. W.; George W. Smith, J. W.; John Dever, Secretary, William Depew, Treasurer; Job C. Smith, S. D., George Viberg, J. D.

CEDARVILLE

was laid out on the northeast quarter of Section 28, in May, 1838. It contains one general merchandise store, and post office, kept by Z. T. Garrett; one steam saw-mill, one blacksmith-shop, and one wagon-shop.

PETER NOTESTINE.

We now assume the difficult, but in no way unpleasant, task of writing the history of one who has wrestled with the hardships and extreme trials of the times when the seed of the rich and glorious harvest of the propitious present was sown, and germinating now clothe it with opulence and splendor. We are to note the events of one who came to this county in its earliest days, before the rude children of the forest had fully retreated and yielded in submission to the determined and invincible force of an aggressive civilization; before the learned, the cultivated, had driven the wild, the untamed, the untutored, away, to make room for the mighty changes that have since been wrought. The subject of this sketch has been an eye-witness to all this; has tasted the bitter and the sweets of frontierism, and is counted among the old time-honored pioneers of this county. This ancient settler with silver head lives yet, vigorous, to tell the tales of the early years, and he recites them so as to interest the auditor. He was the fourth son and the sixth child of Jacob and Barbara Notestine, and was born in Clear Creek Township, Fairfield County, in the far-famed Buckeye State, April 11, 1819. He came to this county, with his parents, in the eleventh year of his age. They anchored at Fort Wayne on the 14th of July, 1830, just one-half a century ago, lacking one year. Here they remained till the spring of 1874, when they moved and settled on the banks of the little St. Joseph River, in what is now Cedar Creek Township. This was the home of the parents till they were called from earth by the Father above, and they sleep in the soil purchased of the Government by William Gunder, a brother of old Mrs. Notestine, but afterward owned by Jacob, the father of Peter, and that sacred spot is yet a part of the Notestine estate. Mr. Notestine's early literary advantages were such as the pioneer youth generally enjoys, but nature compensated largely for lack of early opportunities, and he is credited by those who know him, with possessing good, strong common sense—the best and only true sense in the world. Added to this, he is a close observer, and has been able to make himself conspicuous among his fellows. As a life business, he chose farming as a favorite pursuit, and to this he has given his best energies. He is more than ordinarily practical, and the evidences are that he has been successful. A glance at his home and surroundings will at once impress the observer that he is a master in this safe and respectable avocation. On the 29th of June, 1843, he was married to Miss Jane Blair, daughter of John Blair, an old and respected pioneer of De Kalb County, this State. This union was blessed with six children—Benjamin F., born April 16, 1844; Emily J., born March 1, 1848; Margaret C., born May 28, 1850; Joseph H., born September 5, 1854; Angeline A., born December 12, 1857; Mary A., born February 10, 1860. Mrs. Notestine died February 10, 1860, and on the 27th of July, 1862, Mr. Notestine was again married, this time to Miss Mary Rhinehart, a daughter of A. D. Rhinehart, an old settler of Knox County, Ohio. The fruits of this union have been three boys—Clermont L., born December 12, 1864; Charles M., born January 21, 1867; John P., born October 17, 1869. Mr. Notestine is not a church member of any organized sect, but indorses the doctrine of universal salvation. Politically, he is an unflinching, uncompromising Democrat. Was a delegate from this township, that helped to organize the convention system in this county. He has identified himself as an active worker in the ranks of Democracy. His first Presidential vote was for Martin Van Buren, in 1840, and he has never failed to vote at any Presidential election since. He rallied even to the support of Horace Greeley. Mr. Notestine is a friend of progress, and believes the world should move socially, morally and intellectually.

DANIEL NOTESTINE.

This gentleman was born August 6, 1822, in Fairfield County, Ohio. His parents were Jacob and Barbara Notestine. He was one of a family of fifteen children. Six of them yet survive—four brothers and one sister, besides Daniel. His origin is German, each grandparent being a native of Germany. His father's family emigrated to Allen County in 1830, first settling at Fort Wayne July 14, young Daniel then being a lad of about eight years. Remaining in Fort Wayne until the spring of 1834, they removed to Cedar Creek Township.

Few schools, at that early day, being instituted in Allen County, the advantages for education were necessarily limited. But Daniel early evinced a fondness for reading, and by this medium acquired a goodly fund of information. He is a farmer from choice, and in that vocation has been successful. February 15, 1843, he married Miss Charlotte Lee, and August 20, 1857, their happy union was dissolved by the sad death of his companion, thus leaving eight small children motherless—George W., Andrew and Jackson (twins), John, Elizabeth, Catherine, Sarah and Cordelia. Mr. Notestine was a second time married, August 29, 1858, to Miss Catherine Wagner. Six children have been the fruits of this, his second marriage—Henrietta, Jacob B., William, Nettie O., Anna R. and Daniel, Jr. Mr. Notestine was called upon to mourn the loss of his second companion December 25, 1871. Again, a third time, he was united in the holy bonds of matrimony, September 8, 1872. His choice this time fell on Miss Susan McCrory. Each of his three wives were natives of Ohio. Mr. Notestine and wife are members of the Evangelical Lutheran Church.

Politically, Mr. Notestine's preferences have always been with the Democratic party. His first vote for President was cast for Hon. James K. Polk. He has never been ambitious for political emoluments, yet has always taken an active interest in public enterprises having a tendency to better the condition and elevate the standard of society. Mr. Notestine has ever clung with ardent tenacity to home and family; but, at the same time, an occasional journey afforded him special interest and pleasure. His tours of observation have extended through several of the States where the star of empire spreads its prowess.

Socially, Mr. Notestine is endowed with many admirable qualities. As a business man, he is prudent and successful. His attachments are strong, and his motives honorable. He has been a citizen of Allen County almost half a century, so that he is truly a pioneer. He has experienced and witnessed the extremes of privation and hardship incident to such a life. Hunting was a favorite pastime; many are the deer that have fallen victims to the almost unerring aim of his rifle. Nor has black Bruin escaped death at his hands; Mr. Notestine received credit for having tomahawked two in the wild forests of early days, beside killing three with his deadly rifle.

Closing this brief sketch, we pay a tribute to the grand old giant willow, standing beside the hospitable home of our worthy subject. It was planted by the hand of its owner a third of a century gone. It is a huge tree, its trunk measuring ten feet and ten inches in circumference; its branches extending broad and high. It is a tower of strength and beauty, and an object of much interest and wonder to the passer-by. Still in his strength and vigor, may this early settler yet live many years, continue to enjoy the comforts of a pleasant home, and the esteem of a large circle of acquaintances.

DAVID E. O. HERIN,

of Cedar Creek Township, the subject of whose life and family we are about to describe in outline, is a native of the old Keystone State; his parents were also natives of the same State.

David E. O. was born in Columbia County, December 10, 1814, and moved to Ohio with his parents, James and Mary Herin, in the year 1828. They settled in Seneca County, Ohio, long before the red man of the forest had vacated to make room for the triumphs of those who were following the star of empire westward. Mr. Herin's parents never came any farther West; they both died in Seneca County, and they sleep peacefully on the soil of the State of their adoption.

David, of whom we now write, was the youngest of a family of ten children. One of his sisters preceded, and another followed, him to this State; he came to this county and settled on his present farm in this township in the year 1847.

As facts and dates show that Mr. Herin came to Ohio in a very early day, his school opportunities were, of necessity, limited; the demands of frontier life, and the surroundings, forbade the advantages of anything but light school training. The homes of the settlers were at that time rude cabins, and schoolhouses were scarce and ruder yet. Mr. Herin has been a keen observer of passing events, and, in addition, by much reading at home, he is able to acquit himself creditably among the well informed. He is what is styled a self-educated, practical business man. Early in life, he settled in his mind that he would adopt farming as a livelihood, hence he has had no aspirations for any other business. Has never troubled himself with the hazards and uncertainties of speculation, but has kept within the legitimate bounds of his chosen avocation. He makes no attempt at vain show, but believes what is worth doing should be done well.

The event of his marriage with Miss Elizabeth Umsted took place on the 10th day of January, 1839. Time, that speaks with unerring certainty, testifies that his choice was a fortunate one. Forty years of trials and experience have proved this union to be a perfectly agreeable and happy one. Mrs. Herin is a native of Maryland; was the fourth child of Aaron and Elizabeth Umsted; they died at Tiffin, Ohio, and rest in the silent city at that place. Mr. and Mrs. Herin are the parents of twelve children—six sons and six daughters; four were born in Ohio; this old home of the parents in Allen County is the nativity of the remainder.

The names of the children are Mary E., married to Michael Douglas; Ann E. now dead; Herschel, died in the defense of the Stars and Stripes in the late rebellion; Malinda J., is the wife of A. L. Hollopeter; Frances A., is the wife of Theron A. Clark; Ervin W., John R., James A.; Delilah, married Marcellus Goddard (she is now deceased); Elbert U. (deceased), Rolla E. and Jennie E. This family of children have the credit of maintaining the highest respectability, and living lives that are truly honorable.

The parents are members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. They have wa[illegible] faithfully in that relation since uniting; nine of the children have followed the parents in the path of the higher Christian life.

In politics, Mr. Herin has been a lifelong Democrat. In temperance, he is thoroughly and openly radical; and, for the good of society, is anxious to see a general reform. The citizens of this township have honored Mr. Herin by electing him Justice of the Peace, and then by giving him the office of Township Trustee three terms. He has been a true brother in the fraternity of Freemasonry for more than twenty years.

Socially. Mr. Herin and family enjoy the highest respect and general confidence of the community where he has resided for more than three decades, and pursued thoroughly in a straightforward and undeviating way, an uncompromising manly life.

WILLIAM DEPEW.

The historian grasps his pen with the fondest delight, to chronicle events connected with pioneer life, yet the task is no easy one, for language fails in its power to fully set forth the hardships and privations incident to that life. We have in the subject before us, the life of one who aided in paving the way to civilization in its dawning days in this county. He came here at the early date of November 1, 1836, and settled with his three brothers in the dense forests of this township. Here he began life in earnest, with a determination to succeed; he knew that the obstacles were many, and the task almost herculean; but his purposes were firm and his courage undaunted, and he nerved himself up to all the conditions and the severe struggles that stared him so boldly in the face. He was born in Guernsey County, Ohio, on the 7th of December, 1814. He left his native county with his parents, Isaac and Margaret Depew, in the year 1827, and moved to Marion County, of the same State. Here they resided till they started for this county, the present home of William, of whom we now write. William is one of a family of thirteen children, of whom six are now living. His mother died in this county, and his father in De Kalb County, of this State; both lie buried in the cemetery at Leo. Mr. Depew received the most of his school-book education in the common schools of his native State; his advantages being decidedly limited while there. [illegible] an unusual taste for reading, as a well-selected library in his now cozy h[illegible] appears in evidence; he is a farmer from choice—by industry, by prudent management, by an untiring perseverance, he has made his chosen vocation a real success; he has transformed a small wilderness into a beautiful, fertile farm. Mr Depew has been twice married; the first marriage was with Miss Eunice B. Moore, of De Kalb County, this State, August 9, 1838; she was a native of Wayne County, Ohio, and came to this State two years previous; was born January 15, 1818. This union was blessed with three sons, only one of whom is now living. Their names are Isaac N., born June 18, 1839; Elijah J., born June 10, 1841; William M., born May 19, 1843. Isaac N. died January 17, 1870; Elijah J. died in the service of his country, at Paducah. Ky., March 6, 1862—a fine scholar, but his patriotism and loyalty urged him to serve his country in the capacity of a soldier. Mrs. Depew passed from earth to eternity, March 3, 1878, leaving a vacancy in the home circle that she had always made so pleasant, and in which she had proved herself a blessing for over forty years. She was kind, amiable and affectionate, and filled the place of neighbor, wife and mother with true honor. Mr. Depew, feeling it better to have a companion to share with him his joys, his prosperity, and all the trials and triumphs of life, chose for this partner the estimable Mrs. Rhotchannel, of Fort Wayne, who was a native of Miami County, Ohio. Her maiden name was Elizabeth J. Cruea. Both parties were made one March 27, 1879, and she is now the devoted wife and cheerful companion of Mr. Depew's home. Mr. Depew was raised in the Quaker faith, and adheres strongly to the simplicity of the Friends, although he has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church many years. Politically, he has been a Republican; but recently he has assumed an independent course, and supports men rather than platforms. He belongs to the Ancient Order of Masons. Socially, he is a kind and obliging neighbor, a trustworthy friend, and those who know him best repose in him an unshaken confidence.

ADAM HAMM

was born on the 3d day of March, 1834, in Alsace, France, near the city of Strasbourg. He was the namesake of his father, his mother's name being Margaret. Was the oldest of four children, all yet living.

To escape being drafted into the army of France, then about to take part, [illegible] allied force, in the Crimean war, he fled, seeking refuge and a home on free American soil. Like Joshua of old, he was sent to spy a country which should become the future abode of the Hamm family. This was in 1854, young Adam then being twenty years of age. The following year, the family also emigrated to this country, settling in Allen County, Ind., where, ever since, they have resided, all being engaged in agriculture.

Mr. Hamm was educated in the French and German schools, and made good proficiency in the branches taught at that time in those schools. He now reads the English readily, having learned to do so by patient, persevering practice at his own fireside. Is a friend to education, and, to the extent his township affords, is giving his own children full advantages. Was married August 28, 1859, to Rebecca Depew, their children having been seven in number, six still living. Names as follows: George Washington, born July 17, 1860; Margarette Delilah, born September 2, 1861; Joseph Edmund, born November 12, 1862; Mary Eliza, born April 29, 1864; Caroline, born in August, 1866; Martha Ellen, born April 24, 1869; Samantha B., born March 23, 1875.

The six children form a happy filial family, all still remaining at their father's home.

In religion, Mr. and Mrs. Hamm hold to the faith of the Apostolic Christian belief. In politics, Mr. Hamm is Independent. He has never sought public office, but is a farmer of a high order. His substantial improvements and well-tilled fields bear unmistakable evidence of his industry and good taste, and of his possessing a true pride in the vocation he follows. His farm comprises 160 acres, being second to none in his township.

A view of Mr. Hamm's pleasant residence, accompanied by portraits of himself and worthy wife, may be found on another page of this history.

Mrs. Hamm was the daughter of Joseph and Delilah Depew. She was the third child in a family of four—two brothers and two sisters. Her father was an early settler of De Kalb County, this State, and is yet living. Her mother died in this county in the year of 1842.

In closing, we wish to Mr. and Mrs. Hamm that a long life may still be spread out before them, allowing them from the fruits of their toil yet many enjoyments; allowing them to continue to receive from the community by which they are encircled that respect which only true lives merit.

CAPT. WILLIAM C. HOLLOPETER

is a son of Rev. Andrew Hollopeter, who was a native of Pennsylvania, and a minister of the Gospel in the Methodist Episcopal Church for nearly fifty years. His mother's maiden name was Catherine Edmonds, Ohio being her native State.

William C. was the eldest of seven children, three yet living in Allen County, and one—a sister—living in De Kalb County of this State. A brother, still living in this county, was a veteran soldier in the Eleventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry during the late war. The subject of our sketch was born in Wayne County, Ohio, August 24, 1833. In youth he had moderate opportunities, only, for acquiring an education. He improved well such opportunities, however, thus preparing himself to act a practical part in life's dealings. His father, with family, removed from Ohio to this county in March, 1847, making a choice of settling in Cedar Creek Township. Farming was their pursuit, and William C. continued with his parents, aiding at this vocation, until the summer of 1854, when he became of age.

For a period forward from that time, in the struggle for self-maintenance, he directed his energies alternately at teaching a district school during the winters and at farming during the summers. He was joined in marriage, May 18, 1858, with Miss Cynthia A. Moore, of Allen County. She was a native of Delaware Co., Ind.; born April 22, 1839. Seven children have been the fruits of this marriage, —six of them still living—viz.: Milton R. (deceased), Charles McPherson, Ophelia May, Walter M. M., Ellen Gertrude, Rosa Belle and Herbert Solon.

A patriot to his country, on August 28, 1862, to help maintain the Stars and Stripes, he enlisted as a private soldier in Company C, Eighty-eighth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry. At the organization of the company, he was appointed Corporal; on February 18, 1863, he was advanced to First Lieutenant of his company, and on October 24 following, was commissioned its Captain. He was with his company and regiment during their entire service—the same being attached to the Army of the Cumberland. He was in seventeen distinct engagements and received two severe wounds; fought under Gens. Rosecranz and Thomas, and participated in Sherman's march to the sea. Remaining in the service till after the surrender, until the old flag was again unfurled to every State and to every people of our broad Union (without dispute), Capt. Hollopeter received his discharge at Washington, D. C., June 7, 1865. Following his discharge, he immediately returned to the bosom of his family and to the quiet avocations of civil life in Cedar Creek Township. Religiously, he has been an exemplary member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since the age of sixteen, and his estimable wife since a young girl of nine years. Has ever been a stanch friend of temperance. In politics, a firm Republican, yet not an aspirant for political honors. For the past fifteen years has belonged to the Order of A., F. & A. M. He is an industrious, good citizen; one whose influence for the right is ever felt. Is an ever willing advocate and supporter of that which elevates while he is just as ready and anxious to repudiate and defeat that which debases. Within the large circle of his acquaintance he is universally esteemed.

CHRISTIAN J. SCHLATTER.

The subject of this biography is of foreign birth—he is of stanch old German stock; he came to this country with his parents in the year 1852—a child but two years of age. The family settled, at that time, in Cedar Creek Township, Allen Co., Ind., where they have since continued to live, and have borne an honorable name. The father of the above-named gentleman was Christian; he died during the great centennial year, at the age of fifty-one; was a man of thrift and respectability. His widow, the mother of Christian, Jr., is still living on the old homestead. Her name is Barbara. She has a fine farm, and is in excellent circumstances. Mr. Schlatter is one of five children—four brothers and one sister—the brothers and sister all reside at the old paternal home. Mr. Schlatter received his education in the common schools of this township. He excelled in the branches he studied, and, although his time in school was quite limited, because his labor was needed by his father on the farm, yet he has what is regarded as a good business education, and is a man of practical business ideas. He was married, February 2, 1873, to Miss Bena D. Nofziger, an amiable lady of Fulton County, Ohio; she was a native of that county—four years her husband's junior, and had always resided there up to the time she came as a bride to Indiana. As the result of this marriage they have had two children—Gertrude Jerusha, born December 20, 1875, died August 6, 1879; Jessie Pearl, born April 3, 1879. Mr. and Mrs. Schlatter were both reared in the German Baptist faith, but are not members of any church. They take a highly moral course in life, and are exemplary in that direction, in the community where they live. They support the church for its beneficial effects on society, and stand up squarely to all that will advance its highest and best interests. Mr. Schlatter's integrity is known and established. In politics, he allies himself to the Democratic interests, but is quite liberal in his partisan views. He has resided on his present farm but five years. He has made those years tell, in making improvements of all kinds, that have added to its productiveness and appearance. He is a man of order; a judicious manager; genial as a companion and associate; has many of the elements of popularity; is full of the snap and vim that mean progress and success. Our patrons will be pleased to find a view of his home on another page of this history.

CONRAD H. VIBERG.

The subject of this narrative was born in Germany, near the city of Hanover, March 6, 1809. He was the son of Conrad and Caroline Viberg, both parents being native Germans, and both spending the full measure of their lives in their native land. Mr. Viberg came to this country in 1834, intending to return to the land of his nativity after a sojourn of four or five years. But, admiring the institutions here, and enjoying his associations so agreeably, he had formed endearing attachments—had become settled and contented. Besides, he had noted the superior advantages the poor man of industry here enjoyed, by way of acquiring a competence. These combined inducements determined his permanent continuance on this side of the Atlantic.

He first settled in Fairfield County, Ohio, and was there united in marriage with Miss Angeline Abright, March 6, 1835, she having emigrated from Germany the previous year.

Mr. Viburg was the second in a family of seven children, and the only one of the family who has ever come across the sea. Remaining five years in Fairfield County, he then removed to Williams County, of the same State. There he bought eighty acres of wild land, commencing at once to clear and improve. At the end of one year, however, he withdrew from this new farm, in seeking employment in the construction of the Wabash & Erie Canal. Finally, selling his farm, he engaged as foreman with a canal contractor (Col. Lemuel Jones). This position he held three successive years. Then, resuming his former pursuit (farming), for one season, he again accepted a situation as foreman with Col. Jones, until the completion of the canal.

Moving then to Huntington County, this State, he first leased, and later purchased of his former employer (Col Jones), the property known as the "Roanoke farm." Remaining there a number of years, he again changed locations this time settling on his present farm in Cedar Creek Township, this county where he has since continued to reside with entire contentment.

Twenty-four years here of diligent toil have resulted in many substantial improvements. In fact, his farm abounds in evidences of a high order of husbandry.

Mrs. Viberg was the daughter of Christ and Dorthea Abright. Both parents died in Germany, the land of their birth. Mrs. Viberg was one of three sisters. One of the other sisters accompanied her to America. Mr. and Mrs. Viberg have reared a family of nine children, four of them now living. Naming in order of birth we have—Lucinda, who married John Yahney; Harmon B who married Augusta Nettleherst; Sophia, who is the wife of Rev. Florence Douglas, now Pastor of the Lutheran Church at La Otto, this county; Mary, Russellus L., Eliza, Lemuel A.; George H., who married Miss Mary Shambaugh and lives near his parents, and Sarah J., who married Samuel McCrory. This venerable couple are the grandparents of twenty-two children; also have two great-grandchildren, one living and one dead.

McComb and Sloffer, and J. C. Runyan; two meat markets kept by R. J. Hillegass, and V. E. McComb; a restaurant and grocery managed by W B. Cole; a drug store, C. O. Bush, proprietor; the plumbing, cemetery fixtures and lightning-rod establishment of W. J. Snyder; two dealers in agricultural implements, A. J. Baker and Samuel Hieber; two blacksmith shops, run by W. F. Snyder, and W. A. Grimme and Sons; the wagon 'smithy of N. C. Glazier; R. G. Dunlap's dry-cleaning house and two tonsorial parlors. Huntertown is both temperate and peaceful, supporting neither saloons nor lawyers. The ailments of the town are healed by Dr. Frank Greenwell, long-established and known the country 'round, and Dr. Harry Erwin, "the young doctor." Mrs. Greenwell is the daughter of W. T. Hunter, and with her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Nelson, is as well known as the doctor himself. The Huntertown State Bank, Charles Hartung, president, has very smart headquarters, above which are the Masonic lodge rooms. Visible are the little interurban depot, the Hatch hotel, and the postoffice. The latter serves three rural routes, is in charge of Mrs. Myra Warcup, a daughter of early citizens. Mrs. Warcup's father and mother, Stephen Thornton and Angeline Cummings, were married sixty years ago in a little cottage which still stands at the north end of the village street, and during their earlier married life lived at the hotel, which was at that time the Wamsley house, kept for a long period by Christopher Wamsley, who traveled for the Updegraff firm in Fort Wayne. The hotel is fully seventy years old, the original house from which it was enlarged being still older than that. It is well preserved and still conducted by Mrs. Mary Hatch into whose hands it passed after the proprietorship of the Wamsleys. The place is well known to the tourists who stop there for the good country dinners which are served.

Telephones are supplied to Huntertown by the Farmers' Mutual exchange, and connected with Fort Wayne by the Bell Company's lines. A little paper called the "Huntertown Echo" is published fortnightly by the Methodist minister. Huntertown has no fire department, but is organizing a volunteer company, and arrangements are being made to raise money for the apparatus, as fires have been frequent, though fortunately, not very disastrous. The community is very proud of its new agricultural society, the only one in the county, and strengthening rapidly. Its second cattle show will be held this year (1917), and real premiums are being offered, where only ribbons could be awarded in 1916. Fancy stock sales are conducted by the society also. Dr. Frank Greenwell is president. But the automobile that flies along Plank street without stopping, flinging the dust of Lima-road all over the village porches, cannot realize the really big industry of Huntertown, which is the mammoth elevator plant of the "Huntertown Grain Elevator Company." The elevator—or, rather, several which preceded it and perished by fire,—has been in existence since the early railroad days. At first it was used only for grains, but since it was taken over, in 1910, by the new company, it has been repeatedly enlarged and broadened to include the storing of lumber, cement, and all sorts of building material, as well as other agricultural products, such as potatoes—from as far away as Minnesota—and is constantly crowded to capacity, which, for grain, is ten thousand bushels, but like the omnibus will always hold a little more. In 1916 the capital stock was increased from eight to thirty thousand dollars. all of which is sold, and which pays from twenty to forty per cent. A milling room has been added, which grinds only for customers, and not for the trade. Dr. Greenwell is president of the company.

Huntertown has an actual population of about two hundred and fifty wide-awake individuals, and has all the materials of growth, in spite of which the census shows but slight increase from time to time. Perhaps the new "community spirit" has not yet been breathed into its nostrils.

Between the Huntertown neighborhood and the Eel River line is located the fresh air camp of the Anti-tuberculosis League of Fort Wayne, known as "Fort Recovery," while well to the south of this, in portions of sections thirty and thirty-one of Perry, and section thirty-six of Eel River township, lies the new tract purchased by the county for a county infirmary to which, before long, the county dependents will be removed.

For picturesqueness and unique topographical features no part of Allen county equals Perry township. "Dutch Ridge," the highest point in Allen county, is a part of the Wabash-Aboite moraine, which, near the bend of Cedar creek in the vicinity of Gloyd's mill, lies more than one hundred feet above the creek which runs through a deep gorge cut through the moraine near its highest altitude. The sides and the gorge, steep and precipitous, are of great beauty, clothed with trees and vegetation of wild variety. A wagon road in very good condition leads through the gorge, which abounds in attraction to the artist or the tourist, and should be better known and more visited than it ever has been. The whole vicinity is picturesque in the extreme, Gloyd's mill the successor, on the same site, of the Vandolah mill, itself being worth a trip in that direction. There are cold springs of mineral water in the neighborhood, which offer considerable advantage as a place of summer sojourn.

Cedar Creek Township

Something of mystery pertains to the region set apart in 1837 as Cedar Creek township. Watered by a confluence of small streams which find outlet in the St. Joseph river, it embraces, topographically, a basin the position of which evidently made it more attractive to earlier visitors than those who finally made it their home. Long before the methods and habits of the ancient mound builders became popular knowledge, the earliest adventurers were impressed with the idea of former human occupation of this locality, and settlers were rewarded for their open-mindedness on this score by the discovery, from time to time, of traces of French missionaries—and other things not French. There is very good evidence of the region having been. at some remote period, the home of mound builders also, a distinction in which Cedar Creek township is unique in the county; a few fragments of the skeleton of a supposed mastodon, found on the farm of Peter Notestine, including a three inch tooth or so. a cross of beech wood and an inscription in French upon a beech tree, both bearing the date 1772, unite with other evidence to attract the interest and excite the imagination. Wonder as to what all these widely different relics of the past may mean gives free rein to fancy. Romances weave themselves, from the gossamer threads of conjecture, jeweled here and there with prehistoric fragments. The inscription and the beechen cross both proclaim the nature of the French invasion, which the bits of log chain, the cinders and other buried evidences of a primitive forge do not disprove. But what drove the peaceful invaders away? What hopes of return did the burial of those relics indicate? If we who walk through treeless avenues of trade, floored with asphalt, and lighted by the flare of electricity, feel the blood stir with the mystery of these things, what must William Muller and John Pring have felt, who took them from the cool damp earth of the forest primeval? Or, in 1850, when an April windstorm had thrown an ancient linn tree, and honest John Pring found imbedded in its wood a sword, while neighbor Muller turned up a cannon ball with his plowshare the same week, what a contradiction of all previous impressions those sinister relics must have seemed. Did cross or sword prevail in that region? We will never know, but the fancy does not picture them approaching the aborigines hand in hand.

Glacial markings are quite apparent in the Cedar Creek locality, being easily recognizable by the educated eye. The St. Joseph river flows from northeast to southwest, joined a little to the southwest of Cedarville by Cedar creek (the titular stream), through the central portion of the township, and furnished transportation facilities to the early settlers as well as drainage and the less marketable, but none the less valuable, asset of beauty. Once opened to settlement, Cedar Creek, with its varied but productive soil, rapidly attracted a pioneer population, but its remoteness had kept it isolated until 1833, when a solitary settler named Wood (the tradition does not accuse him of taking a wife to that lonely spot) spent the winter in a cabin on the St. Joseph, patiently longing for the spring. The Jacob Notestine family, who had made their start in Fort Wayne, where their ability and quality as settlers gave them open sesame had they preferred that path to fortune, chose rather the rural life, with the peaceful victories of the woodman's axe, and the tang of new-felled timber, and the subsequent subjugation of the soil to civilizing vegetation. Accordingly, in the spring so fervently wished for by the homesick Mr. Wood, the Notestines secured a flat boat whereon they loaded their household goods, and the family, root and branch, and were poled up the St. Joseph river to the mouth of Cedar creek. Then was the winter of the lonely Mr. Wood's discontent made glorious summer, indeed. Without waiting to cast one lingering look behind, he embarked with his few possessions, and the flat boat bore him back whence he came, leaving the Notestines in undisputed possession of the virgin territory of Cedar Creek.

However, it was but a few weeks until John Manning, with his family, including two sons, William and Amos, made good neighbors for them, and life began to move through the forests other than that of its furred, feathered and scaly denizens, though these were uncomfortably numerous. In 1836 William Muller, a native of Germany, trained to the baker's trade and a novice at farming of any character, deserted the kneading trough and the oven, shouldered an axe and the few goods most necessary and, having located a spot for a home in Cedar Creek, proceeded to hew his way to it from Beckett's Branch, through the tangled thickets of the forest. His eighty acres were at once attacked with zeal, and the erstwhile baker of loaves soon became an expert splitter of fence rails. The clearing grew apace, and a log cabin went up, eleven by twelve feet in dimensions. William kept bachelor's hall that winter but did not neglect to make friends of his neighbors when time permitted, though wolves were so numerous that evening visits were risky unless one went armed with a pitchfork, while even an occasional bear urged a closer acquaintance upon the indiscreet woodsman. But from all these perils he escaped unharmed, and when he went back to Cincinnati the next April to bring "home" his bride, Miss Mary Ann Kansen, it was not to utter loneliness that she came. True, there were the privations of a settler's life, but there was hope to combat them with; and the "baker's dozen" of little ones who came one by one to share the little cabin with them in the years that followed must have banished loneliness even if they brought in care and anxiety. One can fancy the father's axe hewing more logs to build a wing to the cabin before many seasons rolled around, and picture how great a day that was for them all when they moved "out of the old house, into the new," as prosperity rewarded their struggles.

Jacob Notestine kept up that reputation for sterling worth which he with his sons had gained in their four years at Fort Wayne. Of all who gathered in the township, no family did better service to the community than he and his stalwart sons. Fairly schooled and a skillful blacksmith, he was eminently fit for the life to which he brought his vigorous middle age, and easily ranks as Cedar Creek's "grand old man." Many descendants still honor the Notestine name in township and county. John Manning's sons, after assisting their father to clear his farm in Cedar Creek, located farms for themselves in Eel River township. Soon after William Muller, in 1836, followed Charles C. Nettlehorst and his wife, Helena, with their three children—also from Germany. They reached Fort Wayne by means of a flat boat trip down the St. Joseph river, nearly a week taken up in a trip of only sixty miles, owing to the blockade of driftwood in the river. Houses were so infrequent along the way that the little family tented at night, lighting the darkness by a sputtering lamp contrived of a piece of salt pork and a split stick set into the ground. Arrived at last at their destination Mr. Nettlehorst courageously began work upon his eighty acres of woodland. Previously accustomed only to indoor work, the building of his cabin and the subsequent laborious clearing were too severe for his limited strength. He fell a victim to malaria, and died three years after their arrival, August 11th, 1839. Helena and the lad Louis, but thirteen years old, were left to do battle with the wilderness for the five younger children. It seemed an unequal contest, but Helena possessed considerable financial talent, and while bearing her part in the struggle was a great help to the boy in bearing his. In spite of the burden prematurely laid upon his young shoulders, they prospered, slowly. Louis married Miss Marian Ziegler and reared a family of six, filled township offices, and made his mother's declining years comfortable and happy. Treasured from boyhood, he always kept sacredly his father's memorandum book and violin, the latter a long mute evidence of the refinements that came to the remotest outposts with their pioneer owners.

Settlers came thick and fast from 1836 on. Peter Sullivan and John Rogers, both natives of Ireland but late of Pennsylvania, arrived arm in arm, in 1836. Congenial friends always, they proved to be as good citizens as they were comrades. John Baker and William Berry came about the same time. They did good work at their clearings, but eventually went farther west, Mr. Berry's farm passing to Christian Schlatter. Moses Sivotts, who began as a settler in St. Joseph township, came to Cedar Creek in 1838, cleared a new farm and resided thereon until his death, being buried in its soil. Mrs. Sebastian Schlatter later became owner of that farm. Between 1837 and 1840, among the settlers, permanent for the greater number, who made their appearance were Aaron Paff, who married, in 1838, Miss Mary A. Reater, who, the old chronicle states, was a Baptist, while her husband was a Presbyterian. Happily, these differences were abrogated in a becoming manner, both of the worthy pair uniting with the Methodist Episcopal church, in which communion they devoutly reared their eleven children. Other pioneers of this date were Joseph and William Shields, John Hackley, William Bowser, John Hagan, Henry Updyke, Abraham Fulkerson, Harmon Lydecker, Joseph Silvers and John B. Blue.

The two latter men were elected Justices at the first township election, while Thomas Wilson was chosen for Constable. The total vote was twelve. The first road was surveyed through the township as far as Jacob Notestine's farm in 1834, and completed within a few years. This was the road secured by Christian Parker, of St. Joseph. James Vandolah, famous early mill builder, erected a sawmill in 1839, to which was added an arrangement for grist milling. Corn was first planted in Cedar Creek by Jacob Notestine and John Manning, and in the autumn of the same year (1834) each sowed wheat. Mary, daughter of Peter Notestine, was born in autumn 1834, but died before the snow fell,—the first white birth and also the first death in the settlement. The first orchard was set out by Jacob Notestine in 1836, Johnny Appleseed bringing the trees. This orchard was still in flourishing, productive condition after fifty years had passed. Miss Martha A. Notestine and Nelson Grubb were principals in the first township wedding. John Manning was appointed first postmaster, and his deputy was John B. Blue, the office being kept at Mr. Blue's store. It was a point on the mail route from Fort Wayne to northeastern Ohio and southern Michigan. The carriers were Jeremiah Bowen and his sons Mason and Marvin. At the site of Hamilton,—or Leo as it is now called,—Stout Price set up his blacksmith forge in 1840, finding himself a few years later "the village blacksmith." Samuel Cassaday became his partner, and afterward his successor in the 'smithy.

Cedarville was the first town to be promulgated in the township, being platted in 1838 by the Ewings of Fort Wayne and Cass county, and a firm of Connecticut prospectors. Situated in the forks of the St. Joseph river and Cedar creek, it seemed at that time to have a fair chance of growth, but after the platting of Hamilton, its attractions as a center waned, and in 1880 the census gave it credit for only 113 inhabitants, a number which in 1900 had dwindled to fifty, against a population of five hundred at Leo.

The postoffice, established at Leo on account of its more central location, was probably the circumstance favoring the later town, which did not come into existence until 1849. John Dever, manager of the first regular boat line plying up and down the St. Joseph river, established a wagon shop at Leo in 1852, and soon after opened a store, and being a capable and successful man, aided the village in attracting population. He was one of its most striking and popular figures, and even captured the township vote, on one occasion, though he was a Republican while the township was strongly Democratic. The Leo Flouring Mill was the industry which received the attention of his latest years.

The first school house built in the Cedar Creek district was the usual log structure, erected in 1837, and centrally located, but so near the swamp that no roads approached it, and few children lived near enough to attend it. The first election is said to have been held there, but it is probable that it was merely attempted, as half of the voters were reported to be unable to find the place. Both as voting place and school it was equally a failure, no school ever having been taught there, and the abandoned cabin finally went to decay. The elections are said to have been held at the house of John Manning for a time, but information as to where the first term of school was really taught is not at hand. School history in this township is so meagre that it might be suspected the early educational advantages were equally meagre, if it were not for what is told in personal biography. In 1857, however, it is certain that free schools were established on the same basis as elsewhere, and that since then the township has kept the educational pace without faltering.

Cedar Creek township owns an unusually large number of religious denominations. The first religious meeting, held at Jacob Notestine's, was conducted by a Methodist Episcopal clergyman, both Methodist and United Brethren joining in it. These two denominations organized separately at about the same time, in 1845, and after moving about with the tide of settlement for a number of years are at this time settled, the Methodists maintaining churches at both Leo and Cedarville, and the United Brethren owning a fine church edifice at Cedarville. The Mennonites organized in 1852, and built a church near Leo. The German Baptists became numerous enough to organize many years ago, and to purchase a meeting house of their own. The Apostolic Christian church was organized with but two members, one of whom used to preach a sermon to the other. However, the "two or three" who thus "gathered together" multiplied long ago to a congregation large enough to build a church for themselves, near Leo. The Catholic Mission, at Leo, is one of the oldest outposts of that church in the county, a French exile, Father Adam, having first ministered to the Catholics in the district, according to traditions. The name first applied to the congregation was St. Bonifacius, but this has long been changed for "St. Leo's." The church edifice at Leo was built by Fathers Benoit and Faller, in 1856, and the pastoral residence by Father Zumbuelte in 1870. Cemetery grounds were donated in 1863 by Peter Sullivan. The church is maintained as a mission, the ministrations being made by the pastor of St. Vincent's. A parochial school was kept up for some years, but has recently been discontinued.

The public school status is best told in the recent statistics. The latest school enumeration reported 411 entitled to school advantages in the township. The public school enrollment is 274; high schools, 43; total number of teachers, 13; days taught, high and grade schools, 160; average attendance in grade schools, 223; high school, 37.9; number of schoolhouses, 9; estimated value, $50,000.00; commissioned high schools, 1; high school graduates, 1916, 8; grade school graduates, 21; library, 1,907 volumes; total teachers' salaries, high and grades, $7,978.57; total "upkeep", $2,022.36; per capita expense of education, high school, $85.18; grade schools, $17.95. The school at Leo, both high and grade, is taught in the same building, the 1917 high school enrollment being forty-five, a slight increase over that of 1916. It is a commissioned high school and is on the same basis as any other school in the county. Special courses in the Leo school are Agriculture and Domestic Science, in both of which a high grade of work is being done.

Grabill, Indiana, the newest town in the county, lies on the township line, but belongs more properly to Cedar Creek than to Springfield, and its present status (since it has no pioneer history) belongs here. Grabill sprang into being when the Wabash railroad was built from New Haven to Detroit, and for the short period since it opened its eyes has made a remarkable growth. It has a population of four hundred, and its own system of schools, which include none but the public school of eight grades. Two churches are supported there, the Missionary church, and the Defenseless Mennonite congregation. The professions are represented by N. J. Shook, M. D., and M. H. Hostetter, M D., and O K. Hilty, D. D. S. It has a flouring mill, a sawmill, the Witmer Grain Company, the B. E. Disler Lumber Company and the Grabill Lumber Company; also the Review Publishing Co., in the way of industries, a good hotel run on the American plan, a local telephone exchange, the "New Home," and a solid financial institution embodied in the Grabill State Bank, capital $25,000, deposits over $200,000. The business houses of the town are: The People's Store, general merchandise; "The Fair," a department store; the Wann and Smith and the Hursh garages; H. Souder and Sons, harness; A. Neuenschwander and Co., implements; V. W. Hartley and Co., hardware; the Grabill Drug Co., Mary Yoder, drugs and confectionery; Ira Fuhrman, barber; Phil Brown, meat market; C. Boger, livery and sales, and A. Conrad, livery. E. C. Martz is the postmaster.

The schools at Grabill are not administered as county schools, the "school city" of Grabill being regularly incorporated and independent. While this is a situation that may soon change, since no other city except Fort Wayne now works under this plan in Allen county, it must go on record as a matter of history, that for the first ten years of its life as a town, its schools were incorporated under the city name. The report for the year 1915-6 is:—School enrollment, fifty-three; school houses, one; teachers, three; number of days taught, one hundred and fifty; average daily attendance, forty-seven; completed eighth grade, June, 1916, two. The library is small but new, containing a little over fifty volumes. The per capita expense of education is $19.28.

Cedar Creek township has similar features to Perry, in its northern part, where the crest of the moraine ends, and the creek winds tortuously in a never changing channel at the foot. The stream is the prettiest in this quarter of the state, as it is the only clear water creek near. Two tiny gem-like lakes, of the variety germane to morainic regions, lie in the northwestern part of the territory, one of them known as "Viberg's" and the other as "Hollopeter's." The highest point of elevation above sea is nearly a thousand feet.

Springfield Township

It was no longer a question of daring or risk to pioneer in Allen county in the year eighteen hundred and thirty-six. The reputation of previous settlement had by that time made success a certainty to any settler who could rely upon his health and ability to persevere to the end of a known task. The pioneer who came to Springfield township at that date or after no longer was called upon to "risk his all upon the hazard of a die." So surely could he rely upon substantial reward, he might safely have burned all his bridges behind him, for it is not recorded that any of them ever went back because of disappointment in the country. Some, indeed, went farther, but the majority were satisfied to become fixtures. It is even told of one young man that he worked as bond servant in Ohio for six years, to pay for a tract of land in Springfield township, a bargain entered into by "the evidence of things not seen."

Springfield township, without possessing any topographical features peculiar to itself, has natural advantages as an agricultural locality which are not surpassed, if they can be equaled, in the whole of Allen county. The watershed between the St. Joseph and Maumee rivers traverses the territory from southwest to northeast, and the rich black soil, with sand underlying or mixed, is by its own character and the natural undulation of the surface, provided with drainage into the streams which water it. The St. Joseph river cuts across the northwestern corner, and other small rivulets flow mostly toward the Maumee river, the chief among them being Black creek and Twelve Mile and also "Mary Delorme" creek as the name appears on the maps. The true name of the latter stream given to it by early travelers, is Marais de Orme (French for Elm Swamp creek; Marais, swamp—de Orme, elm). Early map-makers, however, failing to understand the French words or accepting the distorted English pronunciation, have compelled the little stream to ripple down through the years bearing the suggestively Hibernian name of "Mary Delorme." The crest of the watershed is the ridge along which the Hicksville road was surveyed in 1839. No road had been located through Springfield township previous to this "Ridge" road, but it was only a year and a half later that the road to Spencerville was surveyed. Settlement had begun in 1836, so there need be no minimizing of the hardships and privations which the pioneers had to undergo in settling this territory, splendid as they found it to be. But the day of every township is recognized as having brought with it men who were sufficient thereto. The trio of men who broke into the forests of Springfield were eminently so. Ezra May, Isaac Hall and William Sweet—these were the pioneers who stamped the new township with a certain

LEO MEMORIAL CEMETERY

This cemetery located in section 22, is on the west side of the Leo Road and south of the Grabill Road. It is new, first burial 1939, and the markers are flush or slightly raised with ground. It is well maintained. There are records. It is suggested that for further information you see the Cemetery personnel. Some lot areas are included.

LEO CEMETERY - OLD

Located in section 22, on the east side of Leo Road, State Road 1, and the south side of Grabill road. It consists of four sections, all well maintained. It contains the site of William Berry, a Revolutionary Soldier, who died in 1812. The section at the intersection of Leo and Grabill Roads was the site of a church, with the cemetery running east along Grabill road. Many of the markers are difficult to read because of age. ACGSI read this cemetery in the summer of 1984.

SWARTZ CEMETERY

This cemetery, once located on the Schwartz Road near the intersection of Grabill Road, near the banks of the St. Joseph River, was removed from that location when the reservoirs were being constructed in that area. The cemetery, bodies and markers were moved to the Leo Memorial Cemetery in section A or L. There is a large placque with the names and dates located there.

The following information is from various mortuary records, but who claim to have buried the individual at LEO. Since there are many cemeteries at and near Leo, it is unknown which burial site was used. However! The Hosler, Hollopeter and Ludwig that are mentioned, I have learned recently, are areas in the Old Leo Cemetery. I hope this information will be of help to you.

my dad's farm marked. We lived there 1938-1946 B.F.

Cedar Creek Township 1880

CAPT. WILLIAM C. HOLLOPETER

Belle's father

is a son of Rev. Andrew Hollopeter, who was a native of Pennsylvania, and a minister of the Gospel in the Methodist Episcopal Church for nearly fifty years. His mother's maiden name was Catherine Edmonds, Ohio being her native State.

William C. was the eldest of seven children, three yet living in Allen County, and one—a sister—living in De Kalb County of this State. A brother, still living in this county, was a veteran soldier in the Eleventh Indiana Volunteer Infantry during the late war. The subject of our sketch was born in Wayne County, Ohio, August 24, 1833. In youth he had moderate opportunities, only, for acquiring an education. He improved well such opportunities, however, thus preparing himself to act a practical part in life's dealings. His father, with family, removed from Ohio to this county in March, 1847, making a choice of settling in Cedar Creek Township. Farming was their pursuit, and William C. continued with his parents, aiding at this vocation, until the summer of 1854, when he became of age.

For a period forward from that time, in the struggle for self-maintenance, he directed his energies alternately at teaching a district school during the winters and at farming during the summers. He was joined in marriage, May 18, 1858, with Miss Cynthia A. Moore, of Allen County. She was a native of Delaware Co., Ind.; born April 22, 1839. Seven children have been the fruits of this marriage, —six of them still living—viz.: Milton R. (deceased), Charles McPherson, Ophelia May, Walter M. M., Ellen Gertrude, Rosa Belle and Herbert Solon.

A patriot to his country, on August 28, 1862, to help maintain the Stars and Stripes, he enlisted as a private soldier in Company C, Eighty-eighth Regiment Indiana Volunteer Infantry. At the organization of the company, he was appointed Corporal; on February 18, 1863, he was advanced to First Lieutenant of his company, and on October 24 following, was commissioned its Captain. He was with his company and regiment during their entire service—the same being attached to the Army of the Cumberland. He was in seventeen distinct engagements and received two severe wounds; fought under Gens. Rosecranz and Thomas, and participated in Sherman's march to the sea. Remaining in the service till after the surrender, until the old flag was again unfurled to every State and to every people of our broad Union (without dispute), Capt. Hollopeter received his discharge at Washington, D. C., June 7, 1865. Following his discharge, he immediately returned to the bosom of his family and to the quiet avocations of civil life in Cedar Creek Township. Religiously, he has been an exemplary member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since the age of sixteen, and his estimable wife since a young girl of nine years. Has ever been a stanch friend of temperance. In politics, a firm Republican, yet not an aspirant for political honors. For the past fifteen years has belonged to the Order of A., F. & A. M. He is an industrious, good citizen; one whose influence for the right is ever felt. Is an ever willing advocate and supporter of that which elevates while he is just as ready and anxious to repudiate and defeat that which debases. Within the large circle of his acquaintance he is universally esteemed.

guess not by this — other Hollopeters. Brothers, cousins maybe.

Dear Betty,

Was glad to hear form you, we had a very busy Christmas vacation so I was unable to reply until now. I hope the enclosed section of our Abstract will answer your questions about your husbands folks.

The property has been now split into two 40 acre tracts and sold off. We have built a new home on three acres located at the south east corner of the original property. As you can see I have not moved very far from home.

If you have any further questions please feel free to write or call. It would be a real pleasure to talk to you again.

Yours truly,

Gordon Cole

W. H. HOLLOPETER	1847-1911
married
Angeline Bishop	1854-1933
Mina G.	1871-1945

W. H. Hollopeter, born Feb. 25, 1847, died Dec. 15, 1911
Angeline Bishop Hollopeter, born May 1, 1854, died Feb. 26, 1933

What we know about this couple is that his name is William H. Hollopeter and she was a Bishop and inherited some land that had been in the Bishop family. This land was the old "Cole" farm that was right across the road from where I (Betty Brown) lived when I was a girl, on the Puff Road.

William and Angeline were married May 27, 1870. She apparently had two other sisters that came in line for this property too.
Harriet M. Bishop, who married Hiram Hursh May 22, 1876 and Kate Bishop, who married John Myers, June 8, 1882 and probably Mary Bishop who was not married in the abstract.
She was also called Marie C. Bishop

Looks like the mother, called widow, was Elizabeth Bishop, and the father was John Bishop. Perhaps Kate and Mary and Marie are all one in the same person. (Yes, as she later married John Myers)

The agreement was acknowledged by Matthias Hollopeter, Justice of the Peace. Matthias and Susan are the couple who lost 2 children in 1873 as well as Susan died, even before the children, but Matthias lived until 1898.

Some was conveyed to Elizabeth Bishop, single, and then on to Ermina Bishop, who apparently was married to Elmer Hollopeter, or' perhaps it was Ermina Hollopeter married to Elmer Hollopeter. Don't know that she was a Bishop except it is all in the same contract as the other. Anyway then in 1903, William and Angeline and Elmer and Ermina sold for $3300 to Elmore W. Parker and Mary D. Parker. New notary public as Matthias Hollopeter is dead.

After Elmore Parker died, still in 1903, his wife Mary chose William Hollopeter as an appraisor and called him a disinterested party, so must not have been any relation.

The land of the Cole farm went from Mrs. Parker, to Simon Gallaway and his wife Nellie Gallaway.

The only Elmer Hollopeter I have found so far is Elmer who appears to be the son of Isaiah and Sarah, 1869-1909. But not certain of this connection.

THE BISHOPS ..

The Bishop family is also buried in the Leo Cemetery where most of the Hollopeters are.

John Bishop died August 18, 1863 at the age of 36 yrs 10 mo 10 d
That would make his birth date about 1826/27.

Elizabeth, his wife, born 1832, died 1923 at about 91 years

There was a daughter named Sarah, probably Benjamin, another unnamed with names and dates hard to read but looking like the children died quite young. Possibly one is Steven.

The Bishops could have been married by about 1850. Angeline was born May 1, 1854.

Harriot Minerva Bishop, born 1855, died Jan. 12, 1930.
Hiram J. Hursh, her husband, born 1849, died Oct. 1, 1927

Mary C. Bishop, born 1859, died March 15, 1943
She was also called Kate so her middle name may have been Catherine. Or she was also called Marie C. in one place.
John Myers, her husband, was born 1859, died August 18, 1945

C.F. Hollopeter

C.F. (Red) Hollopeter, 84, a native of Spencerville, died Aug. 7 at his home in New Madrid, Mo.

Mr. Hollopeter was the son of the late Lee and Minnie (Hollobaugh) Hollopeter

He was a graduate of the University of Illinois, coach at Steel High in Dayton, Ohio, retired from the U.S. Air Force as major, and for many years had been in business in New Madrid.

His is survived by his wife, Marguerite, one son, two grandchildren and several cousins, including Maurice Hollabaugh of Spencerville.

Mary Hedges

Mary Warner Hedges, 80, formerly of Route 2, Auburn, died Monday in Irene Byron Health Center, Fort Wayne. She had been a resident there for eight years.

Mrs. Hedges was a former teacher and housewife, and a graduate of Tri-State University.

She was a life-long Auburn resident. She was born Sept. 13, 1899 in Auburn, the daughter of Charles and Nellie (Daniels) Hollopeter. Her first husband, Ford L. Warner, died in 1962. Her second husband, Frank Hedges, died in 1969.

Surviving are seven children, Mrs. Frank (Carol) Urbaniak, Tullahoma, Tenn.; Donald and Swain Warner, both of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Kenneth (Lois) Davis, Sarasota, Fla.; Arthur Warner, Billings, Mont.; Larry Warner, Xenia, Ohio; and Sherrianne Warner, LaMesa, Calif.; and 17 grandchildren.

Her funeral will be at 1 p.m. Friday in Dilgard, Cline & Southern Funeral Home, Auburn. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Friends may call after 3:30 p.m. Thursday in the funeral home.

AUBURN — Col. Hugh L. Carnahan, U.S. Army Ret., 86, of Auburn died at 4 p.m. Tuesday in the Sacred Heart Home, Avilla. He was a veteran of world wars I and II. There are no immediate survivors. Services at 10:30 a.m. Friday in the Feller-Graffis Funeral Home, Waterloo. Calling there from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday.

Paul Carnahan

Former DeKalb County resident Paul M. Carnahan, 77, died at 8:30 a.m. Saturday at the VA Hospital in North Little Rock, Ark. He had been ill several years.

Mr. Carnahan's late home was in Cookville, Tenn. His wife, the former Mabel Teegardin, preceded him in death four years ago.

Mr. Carnahan was born Dec. 16, 1896 to John and Ophelig (Hollopeter) Carnahan.

He was a veteran of both World War I and II and a member of the Lions Club, the Rotary and the American Legion. Mr. Carnahan served four and one-half years as a Boy Scouts of America executive in Michigan.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Marjorie Wade, Memphis, Tenn., and Mrs. Carol Rice, Indianapolis; a brother, retired Col. Hugh L. Carnahan, Auburn, and six grandchildren.

Services will be at 10 a.m. Tuesday at the Gerig Funeral Home, Auburn. Calling will be after 7 p.m. today. Burial will be in Woodlawn Cemetery.

WED FIFTY YEARS — Mr. and Mrs. Don Rundles of Hudson, above, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Sunday with a family dinner at noon, followed by an open house from 2 to 5 o'clock at the Hudson Methodist Church. Married May 18, 1905, the couple has five children, Mrs. Gordon Dale, Flint, Mich.; Mrs. A. Carl Schmidt, Hillsdale, Mich.; Miss Mary Lois Rundles, Chicago; Herbert, Roseville, Mich., and Dr. Wayne Rundles, Durham, N. C. They have 10 grandchildren.

HUDSON — Widow of Don C. Rundles, Mrs. Grace Hollopeter Rundles, 84, died at 8:10 a.m. Friday at Clearwater, Fla., where she was spending the winter with a daughter, Mrs. A. Carl Schmidt. Two other daughters, two sons, 11 grandchildren, two great-grandchildren also survive. Calling at the Kistler Funeral Home after 3 p.m. Sunday. Services at 2 p.m. Monday at the Hudson Methodist Church.

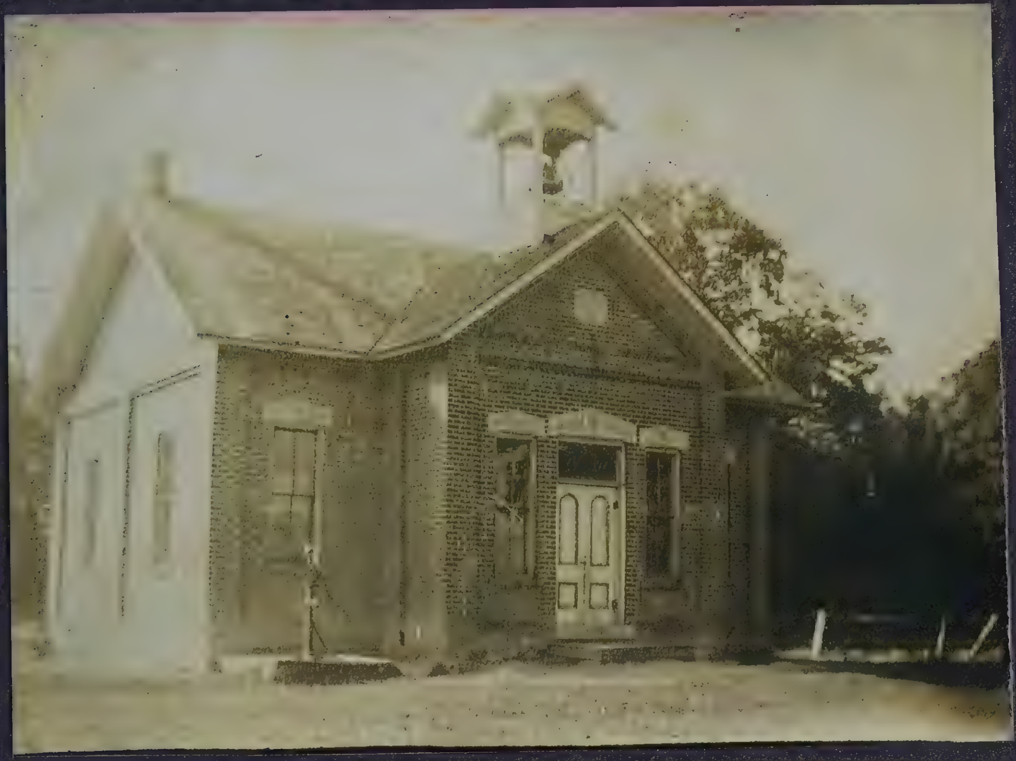
This is school house #3 in Cedar Creek Township. It was located close to the William Hollopeter home, so probably could have been one of the schools that his children attended. If so it would be the school home of Rosabelle Hollopeter and hold many of her memories. She probably attended there with her sisters and brothers. There she probably decided to become a teacher herself.



What appears to be a bad year for the Hollopeters:

First generation Hollopeters coming to Indiana are:

I Abraham, born 1800 married Lydia
I Westley, born 1807 married Rosanah
I Rev. Andrew, born 1808 married Catherine Edmunds

Could be in the first or second generations:

I Isaiah, born 1822, married Sarah
II John W. born 1822, married Mary

Second generation would be probably:

II W. C. (William C.), born 1833, married Cynthia Moore
Mathias, born 1834, married Susan
Abel Lee, born 1836, married Malinda J.
M. Hollopeter, born 1833, married Mary Ellen Israel, born 1840, married Jemima
Wm. H. , born 1847, married Angeline Bishop

Probable next generation:

Charles M. Hollopeter, born 1862, married Nellie George, born 1869, married Lydia
Luther S., born 1870, married Ida
Lewis Morgan, born 1858, married Martha

I am sure there are more Hollopeters, but this is the main cast and they were mostly living in Cedar Creek Township. Belle Hollopeter Fitch (wife of John Fitch) is the daughter of William C. Hollopeter and Cynthia Moore. And William C. is the son of Rev. Andrew Hollopeter and Catherine Edmunds.

It is possible that Isaiah and John could still be brothers of Abraham, Westley, and Andrew. Will look for a first settler of the earlier generation but usually that only happens if either the father or mother come with the children as they move West.

The story I want to tell is what happened to the Hollopeters in the year 1873. Was this a bad cholera year??

June 19, 1872	Rosanah, wife of Westley died. She was 68 years old. Would probably have been mother and grandmother.
Jan. 27, 1873	Susan E., wife of Mathias, dies at 37

March 11, 1873	Homer, son of Mathias and Susan dies at the age of 6 years
March 13, 1873	John M. son of John W. and Mary dies at the age of 7 years.
March 14, 1873	Ardella, 14 year old sister to Homer who died on the 11th, and daughter of Mathias and Susan dies.
March 28, 1873	Lydia, 71 years old, and wife of Abraham, dies, mother and grandmother.
April 8, 1873	Wes~~t~~ley, husband of Rosanah who died in June of last year, also dies at the age of 66 years.
April 24, 1873	Enoch, who is the son of Westley, dies at the age of 32 years.
Sept. 7, 1873	Cary or ~~Cory~~ E. grand~~son~~ dau of Westley and probably Enoch's ~~son~~ dau. dies at 1 year.

In looking at the other cemetery records I don't find that 1873 was a particularly bad year that I could tell, but something ran through this family in the spring of that year that decimated some of the families.

At the time this happened Belle (Hollopeter) Fitch was not born as she was born on May 29, 1874. Her own brother did die in 1874 but I have no date of death. His name was Milton and he was 15 years old at the time.

None of the Fitch family died in that year that I can find. John Fitch was born in 1872.

MATHIAS and BARBARA married in Germany (Wirtenburg)
Came to America
ANDREW was born 1777 in York County, PA
ABRAHAM born 1800 in York County, PA
ANDREW, JR. born 1808 in York County, PA married CATHERINE EDMUNDS in 1832 in Wayne County, Ohio

Time Line then

1728 in Germany
About 1748 married in Germany
before 1777 came from Germany to York County, PA
1777 Andrew, Sr. born
1800 Abraham born
1808 Andrew, Jr. born
1820 some of the Hollopeters were in Seneca County, OHio
1822 Isaiah born, listed as York County. May be that part of the family was still in York
1832 Andrew and Catherine married in Wayne County, Ohio
1850 In Indiana 1850 census

You can follow the Hollopeters across the country as they make their moves and they go in groups with the same first names moving together. Not all ended up in Indiana, but by watching the census reports you can see them moving across the continent to Indiana. A lot of Andrews, Jacobs, Wesleys, Fredericks, Mathias, Abrahams.

REV. ANDREW HOLLOPETER 1808

married

Catherine Edmunds 1807

1.	William C. Hollopeter	1833
2.	Mary A. Hollopeter	1836
3.	James F. Hollopeter	1841
4.	Narcissa M. Hollopeter	1845

From the cemetery records from Leo we probably have Narcissa marrying Eli Arnold.

Narcissa born July 15, 1845, died Jan. 1, 1911
Eli Arnold born April 9, 1839, died Oct. 17, 1911

They lived on section 11 in Cedar Creek Township and are both buried in the Old Leo Cemetery.

There were 2 Mary A's that were possibilities:

1. ~~Mary A. Cender born 1836, wife of David~~
~~Rev. David F. Cender born 1836-1912~~
~~He served in the Civil War, Ohio Co. C, 136 Infantry~~

~~Not sure if this name is spelled correctly. Perhaps it is Bender as that is a good Leo name. I will look for the stone at Leo and see if that is a possibility.~~

~~Would seem likely that a preacher's daugher might marry a preacher.~~

2. Mary A. Rhodenbaugh, born Aug. 22, 1836, wife of Gilbert

Gilbert Rhodenbaugh, Summitt Co., Ohio, September 24, 1834 to April 8, 1891

Do not have the date of the death of either of the above Marys.

We know that William C. Hollopeter married Cynthia Moore and became the parents of Belle Hollopeter Fitch. That is recorded elswhere.

There is a James F. Hollopeter mentioned on the gravestones at Union Chapel Church.

> Almira, wife of J. E. or J. F. Hollopeter died September 13, 1877 at the age of 35 years, 6 mo and 1 day That would make her birth date about 1842.
> James was born in 1841 so the age is about right.
> Looks like their son, Theodore died on July 20, 1877, at the age of 1 year, 3 months, and 29 days.
> So Theodore died in July and less than 2 months later the mother died. James is not listed as buried in this cemetery. And no James listed at the Old Leo Cemetery either.
> Almira was probably a Bowser

WESLEY HOLLOPETER	1807	Apr. 8, 1873
married
Rosannah Edmonds	1804	1872
1. Enoch Hollopeter	1840	1873 - April 24

Buried with Wesley and Rosannah are Cary E. born 1872, d. 1873 and Mort who was born 1864 and died 1928. Could be grandchildren perhaps. Cary was probably Enoch's daughter.

In 1873 there was some kind of disaster in the family. Looks like Rosannah died in June of 1872 at the age of 68 years old. Not unusual in itself and she may have died of natural causes and just old age.

But in the spring of 1873 things all went awry for the family.

The family of Mathias Hollopeter, who could be a nephew or cousin of Wesley lost 2 children, Ardella at 14 and Homer at 6 years in 2 days. His wife Susan had died in late January of the same year. She was only 37. So in 5 weeks his family had man~~n~~y sorrows.

Then Also a son of John H and Mary died at 7 years and Lydia, wife of Abraham probably the oldest Hollopeter settler, died at the end of March. So there were 4 family deaths in March of 1873.

Then on April 8, Wesley, himself died at the age of 66 years. The 24th, his son, Enoch died at 32 years and then Cary E., a daughter of Enoch (probably) and a granddaughter of Wesley and Rosannah dies in September at less than a year.

Will add what I find in the census:

1850 Cedar Creek Census:

Wesley Hollopeter	1806-1873	44 Male
Rosannah	1803-1872	47 Female
Elizabeth	1832	18 Female
Andrew	1833	17 Male
Enoch	1840-1873	10 Male
Emeline	1845	5 Female

Wesley was born in PA and his wife in Ohio and all the kids listed were born in Ohio. No doubt children survived the sickness of 1873.

ISAIAH HOLLOPETER 1822-1884

married

4-5 12-27
Sarah M. 1829-1891

John F. Hollopeter 1843-

Elmer Hollopeter 1869-1909

According to the 1850 census John F. was 7 years old making his birth year in about 1843.

Or is Sarah's birth year wrong or do we have the wrong Sarah? She would be only 14 years old when John was born with a stretch of about 2 years depending on their birthdates and time of year.

According again to the census of 1850 they have Sarah as 30 years old, making her birth year about 1820, and only a couple years older than Isaiah.

Cemetery inscription at Leo reads in the book as Sarah, wife of Isaiah, Born April 5, 1829 and
Died Dec. 27, 1891

According to what another reader took off, they read it as:
Sarah, wife of Isaiah Born April 5, 1820
Died Dec. 27, 1891
More than likely, this is the correct date

John Hollopeter	Feb. 8, 1843
Hattie V.	Feb. 15, 1866 Nov. 17, 1884	18 years old
Walpole C.	Jan. 22, 1878 May 10, 1906	28 years old

It is still possible that Elmer and Hattie could still be children of Sarah, born 1820, but she would be in her late 40's, almost 50. Nearly impossible for Walpole to be. Perhaps there are some grandchildren here. Need to check newer census records.

More than likely the M. Hollopeter listed in the cemetery list as having a wife, Mary Ellen, was Mathias also though it shows just M. Hollopeter.

This may be the Lee and Minnie (HollobaugH) Hollopeter that we find as parents of C.F. (Red) Hollopeter who died at the age of 84. No way to know the year as this is a newspaper article with no other date or information except that he was a Native of Spencerville.

Levi and Minnie are buried in Leo Memorial Cemetery which is across Highway 1 and down a ways from the other cemetery where most of the Hollopeters are buried. Perhaps this is just an extension of the Old Cemetery.

JOSEPH ARNOLD

Joseph Arnold, farmer and minister; P. O. Dayton; born in Virginia Oct. 27, 1818; is a son of Daniel and Catharine Arnold, who came to Ohio in 1830, and settled in Montgomery Co., purchasing 160 acres of land, on which they completed the improvements and spent the remainder of their days. She died in 1852, in the 59th year of her age, and he in 1864, at the age of 73. The subject of this sketch has always been engaged in agricultural pursuits, and in 1840 located in Sec. 18, of Wayne'Township, Montgomery Co., where he now resides; in 1842, he bought the farm and improved it. He has a very desirable farm, under good, cultivation, and one of the best houses in the township. In 1840, May 19, he married Elizabeth Frantz, of Clark Co., born Jan. 30, 1821 ; they have never been blessed with children of their own, but have cared for three orphans, two of whom are still with them. Since 1856, Mr. Arnold has been a minister in the German Baptist Church, officiating in Montgomery and Miami Cos. He has recently been ordained Elder, and has charge of the Grove District in Miami Co. He is an earnest worker in the cause of religion and is universally respected.

We have the land contract that says:

By the Proprietaries:

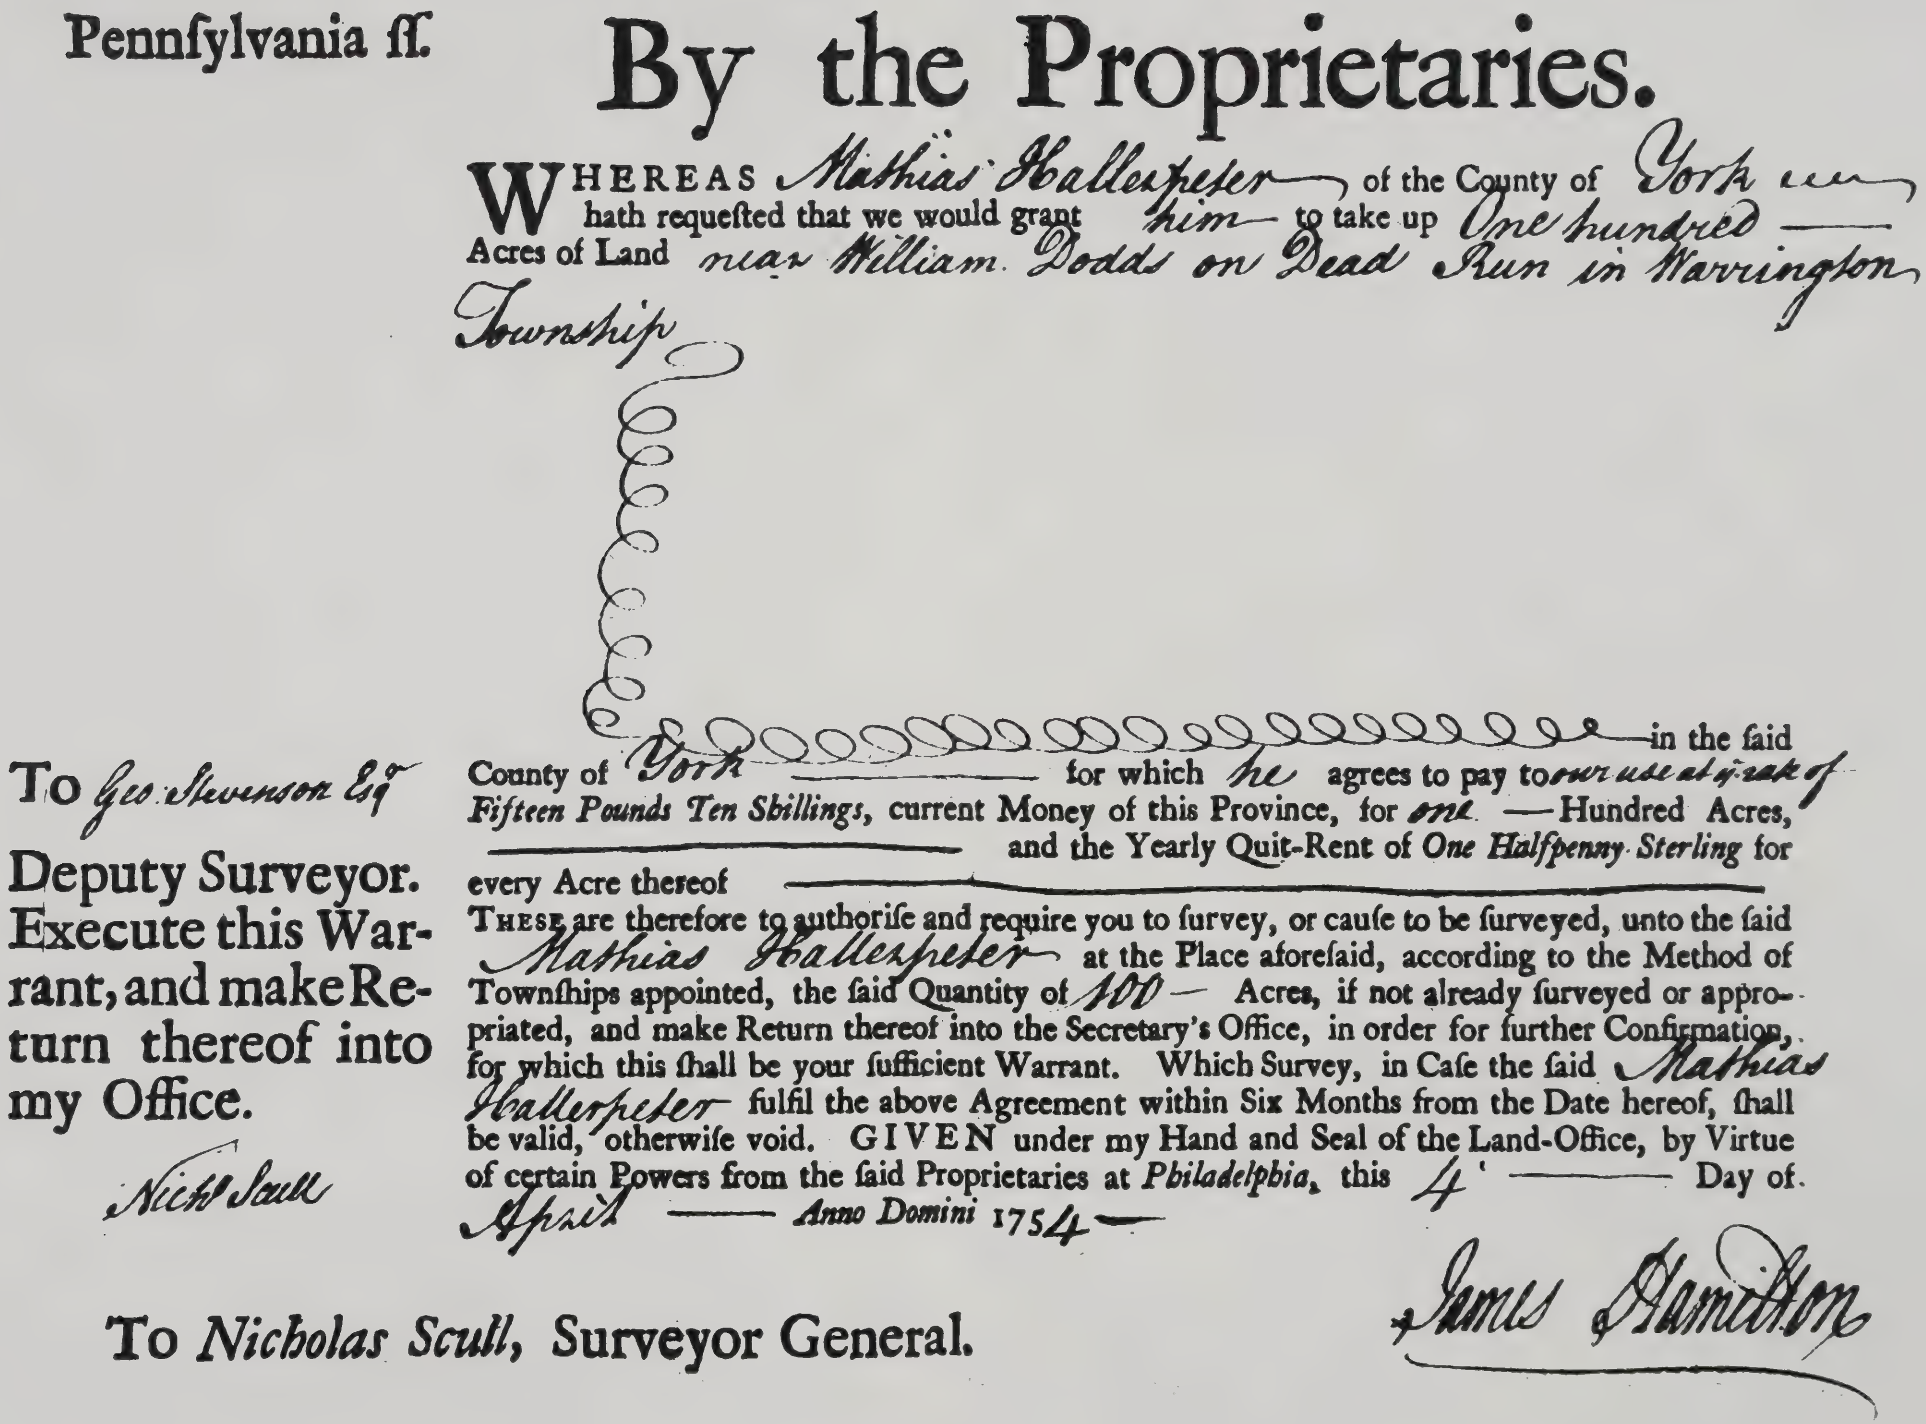
Whereas MATHIAS HALLERPETER of the County of York hath requested that we would grant him to take up ONE HUNDRED acres of land NEAR WILLIAM DODDS ON DEAD RUN IN WARRINGTON TOWNSHIP County of YORK for which he agrees to pay to our use __________ of Fifteen Pounds Ten Shillings, current Money of this Province, for one Hundred Acres and the Yearly quit-Rent of one Halfpenny Sterling for every acre thereof. These are therefore to authorize and require you to survey or cause to be surveyed, unto the said Mathias Hallerpeter at the place aforesaid, according to the Method of Townships appointed, and said quantity of 100 Acres, if not already surveyed or appropriated, and make return thereof into the Secretary's Office, in order for further confirmation for which this shall be your sufficient Warrant. Which survey, in Case the said MATHIAS HALLERPETER fulfil the above Agreement within Six Months from the Date hereof, shall be valid, otherwise void, Given under my Hand and Seal of the Land Office, by Virtue of certain Powers from the said Proprietaries at Philadelphia, this 4th Day of April, Anno Domini 1754.

James Hamilton

To George Stevenson, Esq, Deputy Surveyor. Execute this Warrant, and make return thereof into my Office Nich. Scull. To Nicholas Scull, Surveyor General

Since this is probably the land that was first allotted to Henry Weller in 1751, Mathias may not have been the first owner. Or perhaps Henry couldn't fulfil his obligation. Cannot be sure that is the correct 100 acre plot but Dead Run flows through it and it is the only plat of land that has 100 acres next to William Dodds, so make that assumption.

This was listed as the first Land Grant of Mathias Hollopeter in Warrington Twp., York Co., PA.



Pennſylvania ſſ.

By the Proprietaries.

WHEREAS Mathias Hallerpeter of the County of York hath requeſted that we would grant him to take up One hundred Acres of Land near William Dodds on Dead Run in Warrington Township in the ſaid County of York for which he agrees to pay to our use at ye rate of Fifteen Pounds Ten Shillings, current Money of this Province, for one Hundred Acres, and the Yearly Quit-Rent of One Halfpenny Sterling for every Acre thereof

This Post Card reads on the back,"The New Stone Grave Marker holds the original one erected to Joshua, a Mohican Indian and Moravian elder, who died in 1775 four years after he and a small band of converts, from a similar mission on the Beaver River in Penna, accompanied David Zeisberger, A Moravian missionary, to this beautiful Tuscarawas Valley to establish a setlement and convert the Delaware Indians to Christianity. This settlement later became Gnadenhutten." This is the entry point of the (Daniel) WARNER family into Ohio. They were in the first Moravian movement into this valley from Pennsylvania.

THE MORAVIAN ELDER
DIED AUG. 1. 1775

- In July 1770, after the expiration of their lease at Sichem Moravian Congregational, Dutchess County, NY near the Connecticut border, Daniel Warner, his wife and six children moved to Gnadenhutten, PA and took up quarters in the Old Fort Allen. In February 1771, they were followed by his son Nathan, wife and three children, and in October of the same year by Edmund Edmonds, wife and seven children. Henry Davis and William Knickerbocker, of the Sichem congregation, also expressed their intention of removing to the Mahoning, and Francis Bohler was recalled to Bethlehem in October of the same year.
- Two sources for the Warner, Walton, Edmonds and allied families were, "A sketch of history of the Moravian Congregation at Gnadenhutten on the Mahoning," by Robert Rau, 1844-1906, located in the Moravian Historical Society, Bethlehem, PA, Vol. 2, pp. 397-414. This was the source that traced these families from Windham, CT to Dutchess County, NY to Gnadenhutten on the Mahoning River, PA, now known as Leighton, PA., and finally to Beersheba on the Muskingum River, OH, now known as Lock Seventeen, Clay Township, Tuscarawas County, OH. The second source translated from German to English by Maxine Renner Eberle, 1987, A Ragersville, OH Historical Society Project was (Church Book of the Brethren's Congregation at Beersheba on the Westside of the Muskingum River Opened in the Year of the Lord, 1805], Clay Township, Tuscarawas County, OH. -Taken from Yost Family Tree on Ancestry.com

21 Daniel Warner, b. 1666; m. (1) Mary Hubbard, (2) Thankful Billings.
22 Sarah Warner, m. Isaac Sheldon.
23 Andrew Warner, b. June 24, 1667 (Hadley town records, I:61); m. (1) Ruth Clark, (2) Mrs. Hannah Stannard.
24 Anna, b. Nov. 17, 1669 (Hadley town records, I:61); m. Isaac Hubbard.
Mary (2) Warner, b. Sept. 19, 1672; probably m. Samuel Sheldon.

Children of Daniel^2 and Martha (Boltwood) Warner

Hannah Warner, b. Jan. 24, 1675 (History of Hadley, History of Northfield); d. June 28, 1699; m. Oct. 14, 1696 (Hadley town records), Samuel Ingram of Northfield, b. Oct. 8, 1670, son of John and Elizabeth (Gardner) Ingram. He probably resided in Hadley until after 1703, then removed to Hatfield. He was mentioned in his father's will, 1722.
25 John Warner, b. April, 1677, in Hatfield; m. Mehitabel Chapman-Richardson.
Abraham Warner, b. Dec. 20, 1678, in Hatfield; resided in Hartford, Conn., for some years. Josiah Dewey, Sen^r of Lebanon, Conn., and William Clarke of the same place sold to Abraham Warner of Hartford for £5-00, 200 acres at "Lebanon Village," Dec. 15, 1701 (Lebanon Deeds, I:304). July 17, 1705, Abraham Warner of Hartford sold to Thomas Fletcher of Lebanon, 200 acres, "in that part of town called ye villiage," consideration £18 (Lebanon Deeds, II:5).
26 Samuel Warner, b. April 13, 1680, in Hatfield; m. (1) Hannah Sackett, (2) Elizabeth Morton.
27 Ebenezer Warner, b. Nov. 5, 1681; m. (1) Ruth Ely, (2) Mrs. Mary Bellows.

Elizabeth Warner, b. 168–; m. Dec. 26, 1705, Thomas Wells of Haddam, Conn.
29 Hester Warner, b. Dec. 15, 1686; m. Samuel Harvey.
Martha Warner, b. April 3, 1688; d. Nov. 25, 1689.
Nathaniel Warner, b. Oct. 11, 1690, in Hatfield. He is perhaps the Nathaniel Warner of Suffield who married Thankful Taylor of Hadley, May 1, 1710 (Hadley town records).

8 ISAAC^2 WARNER, son of Andrew^1 Warner, died in Deerfield, Mass., 1691. No records of the date and place of his birth have yet been found, although some have conjectured that he was born in Hartford, Conn., about 1645. As one of the inhabitants of Hadley, Mass., to which place he had doubtless removed with his father in 1659, he signed a petition against imposts, February 19, 1668. He was one of the engagers for [illegible] and was there at the Second Settlement. He became a man of influence in the new plantation, but when the settlement was deserted after King William's War, he removed to Deerfield where he died.

Inventory of his property was made March 26, 1692 (Springfield probate, A:8). The Judd MSS. in the Forbes Library, Northampton (2:159) gives the following note:

> "Court at Northampton March 31, 1691
> Isaac Warner of Deerfield Deceased—Sarah relict, presented Inventory 59£ free—Land in Northfield & Hadley not prized. Inventory taken by Thos Wells & Jos. Barnard."

The widow Sarah Warner was appointed administrator and asked that her son Isaac and brother Ltt. Daniell Warner and Jacob Warner be also appointed. The widow Sarah, "relict of Isaac of Deerfield," made a deed November 4, 1692, to Abigail, "relict of Thomas Croffts sometime of Hadley." (Springfield records, A:12, 124.)

In Book A, land records at Springfield, page 8 at the back of the book, among other entries regarding estates, is the following entry:

> "Sarah the relict of Isaack Warner deceased late of Derefld who dyed intestate presented to this Court an Inventory of the Estate of her late Husband to which she made oath it was a true Inventory soe farr as she knew & if more estate doe appear she will make discovery of it."

Powers of administration were granted to the widow Sarah and Lieutenant Wells and they were under bond for two hundred dollars. The inventory was taken by Lieutenant Thomas Wells and Joseph Barnard, March 26th, 1692.

31 Isaac Warner, Jr., b. Jan. 13, 1669-70; m. Hope Nash.
32 Mary Warner, b. Jan. 6, 1671-2; m. Samuel Crowfoot.
33 Andrew Warner, b. Feb. 24, 1672-3; m. Deborah (Leffingwell) Crow.
Hannah Warner, b. Nov. 14, 1674; probably was the Hannah Warner who m. Eleazer Williams, son of Rev. John Williams of Deerfield, Mass., who was ordained first pastor of the church in Mansfield. She must have died before 1713-4, leaving no children, as she does not appear in the list of her father's heirs at that date.
34 Ebenezer Warner, b. Feb. 25, 1676; m. Waitstill Smead.
35 Daniel Warner, b. Feb. 25, 1677; m. Sarah Golden or Goulding.
36 Samuel Warner, b. Mar. 14, 1681; m. Sarah Field.
Ruth Warner, b. Oct. 18, 1682; probably d. young as no further mention is found.
✓ 37 Ichabod Warner, b. about 1684; m. Mary Metcalf.
38 Mercy Warner, b. Sept. 25, 1685; m. Samuel Gilbert.
39 Lydia Warner, m. Joseph Brooks.
40 Thankful Warner, m. Josiah Loomis.
41 Mehitabel Warner, m. (1) Samuel Hitchcock, (2) Joshua Austin.

9 RUTH^2 WARNER, daughter of Andrew^1 Warner, was probably one of the younger children and born in this country. The only definite information we have of her is in a Hadley court record of 1677 that well illustrates the times and puritanical conditions under which the family lived. An ordinance had been passed forbidding women to wear silk, unless their fathers or husbands were worth a certain stated amount, endeavoring to prevent by law what is best left to those most deeply interested. Ruth Warner defied this old blue law and openly appeared in public apparelled in silk. She and two others, who had likewise offended, were, as expressed in the court record, "presented at court." They were charged with "wearing silk contrary to law," and two of them for "wearing it in a flaunting manner to the offense of sober people." Ruth was admonished by the court and her father was ordered to pay the clerk's fees and witnesses. Andrew Warner was worth £356, a large amount for this period, and one cannot but admire the spirit of Ruth Warner who thus asserted her inherent and inalienable right to adorn herself in such manner as she saw fit.

The name of her husband has been variously reported as John or Daniel Pratt, ——— Caley, or ——— Kellogg. The Pratt is doubtless an error for her sister Hannah's marriage. The name Caley does not appear among the early colonists. Of the early Kelloggs but one is recorded as having a wife Ruth.

Looking for info on Fanny or Mathias. I have a lot of Hollopeter information, but so many repeats of names that they all get confusing and haven't totally pieced it all together. Help would be appreciated.

Fanny is my roadblock. She is the 2nd or 3rd wife of Mathias. They were married betw 1836 and 1845 presumably in Miami Co, OH. My ancestor, William was their last child, b in 1856 in Iowa Co, IA.

HURSH

Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey

One of my 4th great-grandmothers was Elizabeth Hursh (6 Feb 1832 in OH - 18 Nov. 1923 in Allen Co., IN), daughter of Benjamin Hursh and Catherine Watson. Elizabeth married John Bishop on 9 Oct 1853 in DeKalb Co., IN.

I am currently collecting Hursh data from Allen and DeKalb counties, Indiana, and Richland Co., OH, particularly those Hurshes with Watson or Bishop connections. While I realize that there are Hurshes in other areas of IN and OH, I am focusing only on these counties at this point. If you have any such data to add, I would love to hear from you.

Please e-mail me: rbngdfello@aol.com
